Dear Mr. Quinn:

I hope by the time you finish reading this letter you won't be utterly confused. Since I had some information I thought might interest you, I just decided to pass it on.

I am a descendant of the McAlpine family and have corresponded quite a bit with B. D. "Mac" McAlpine in Texas. In going through My McAlpine file today I found copies of some correspondence from you to Mac about your McDonald family tree.

I have done quite a bit of research on the McDonald family. My great grandmother was Ann Montgomery McDonald, sister of Hugh Lavender McDonald, your great ~~grandfather~~ great grandfather. Their mother was a Lavender. This is on my mother's side of the family. The McAlpines are on my father's side of the family.

I am attaching some copies of family groups which I hope are self explanatory.

Your great grandfather, Samuel C. McDonald, married a McDonald - but not related. She was the daughter of Daniel L. McDonald. They were from N.C. and our McDonalds were from S.C. The 1880 census of Sumter County, Alabama, shows that Samuel and Mattie (Martha) had a son, Hugh, who was 2 years old. This would be your grandfather who married Ella G. Harris. His sister, "Sallie", was living with him at that time. (Samuel's)

Your great grandfather had a sister, Sarah Jane, (not Arian Henrietta) who married Archie McAlpine, my great grandfather's half brother. Mac's grandmother was Arian Henrietta McDonald. Her maiden name ^{was} ~~is~~ Harris - she married a McDonald - then married William Thomas McAlpine. We have never been able to determine which McDonald she married but we think it might have been my Ann Montgomery McDonald's youngest brother, Drew.

My cousin in N. C. has been researching the Lavender family for years but we have not been able to verify all the data on the Hugh Lavender-Rebecca Smith sheet. We are still working on it.

After looking at the above, instead of you and Mac being 3rd or 4th cousins, you and I might be about 10th ~~xxxxxx~~ cousins.

McDonald Family File #1

I am sending you a group sheet on Daniel Arthur McDonald and Martha New, parents of Martha "Mattie" Ann McDonald. It is hard to read, but you can see that it shows that Mattie and Samuel had children, two of which were (or was) Hugh and Arch (evidently named for Sarah Jane's husband). Quite a bit of research has been done on the Daniel Arthur McDonald family by:

Mrs. Jane H. (Malcolm) McDonald
4014 Montevallo Road
Birmingham, Al. 35213

205-821-1353

She is a great person, and if you're interested in more data on this family I'm sure she would be happy to furnish it.

The # on each sheet represents my line of the family.

You will note that in one or two places I show "McDaniel" in parentheses. Years ago a McDonald might be called McDaniel - and a McDaniel might be called a McDonald. It might ~~xxx~~ have been the penmanship. When my great grandmother, Ann Montgomery, married William Fletcher Turner, the marriage certificate showed McDaniel. Some elderly relatives whom I knew told me that they knew Ann Montgomery well and she was a McDonald and her mother was a Lavender and all her relatives were McDonalds. So this information by word of mouth put me on the right track. I was at first looking for McDaniels and just about pulled out my hair. It can be most frustrating when you look and look and can't find anything.

You must be tired of all this, so will close. My husband says I don't know when stop when I get started on my "trees".

As I've said above, if you ~~ix~~ are interested, I hope this will help you some. If not, just ignore it.

Our cousin has completed and published the McAlpine Genealogy book (735 pages) and it is great. I hope Mac is enjoying it as much as I.

Would appreciate hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Ruth Curry McGowen
(Mrs. Charles W. McGowen)

P.S. You might not have time to ~~xxxxx~~ absorb all this until after Xmas.

Dear Archie,

The last two Saturdays I have gone to the Mason Library to reread the census data on Richmond County, North Carolina for 1800 through 1860 - I've tried various methods to develop the information to see if any new insights fall out on Angus and Catherine Buchanan McDonald - I think some points do appear more certain than before and for that reason I'm sending you a copy of my working papers for your comments - for might find it useful -
Let me first explain the enclosed five sheets:

(A) Sheet (A) is a plot of all the census data on the "family" or "families" listed with anyone whose name is close to Angus McDonald. The 1790 volume was missing so couldn't be reread, the 1800 Richmond County Census was hard to read, the census takers had bad handwriting and terrible spelling - however, there appear to be 3 possible Angus, one of whom has no family so isn't ours. The 1810 file is beautiful, clear, no mistakes - 1820 on the other hand is rather hard to read and again I came up with more than one Angus but I have a preference for one from a correlation of neighbors names - not certain but more than a gut feeling - I'll work more on this one later. 1830 looks good as does 1840. 1850 and 1860, where we get names of others in household, unfortunately are too late to help much with the family. Angus has a 25 year old Alexander with him in 1850, and a 32 year old Neale in 1860. Don't know who they are but doubt they're sons of his.

(B) I single out Angus himself and note that 1840 and 1850 causes a little pain with a 1769 birth date but probably is the best match. - Catherine on the other hand is a real surprise! She did not die in 1856! She was gone by 1840! I'll wager that her tombstone said she died Sept 25, 18306, not 1856, as reported by Mrs Goolger. If so, death at age 60, means birth in 1776 - Note how well that tracks with the age of the oldest female in the household!!! a very reasonable mistake in reading an old tombstone and one that would help resolve a long standing mystery we had on her birth date.

(C) This sheet compares Angus children ages with ones I've found from Idell's chart in the Mississippi census data. The match is excellent! Of course, if that's where I'll get the data I've just gone around in a circle so again I ask you where the children names, dates, etc came from?

(D) In sheet (D), I use the Richmond County, N.C. census data to get age brackets on the Angus McDonald children, which is the way the data is presented and I plot it vs the year. Also are I'll's birthdates were given in her chart

(E) Sheet (E) is a series of comments on the correlations to be found and my impressions of where we need other boys and girls, keeping in mind that I'll had an extra 4 children with no dates listed. Now, it is clear that some could have died along the way, too. We clearly need more girls earlier, one or two extra boys and a few, like Catherine and maybe Sarah Ann would a little. However, I'm really intrigued that I'll lists a precise birthdate for Sarah Ann, namely Sept 10, 1836 while my speculation is that Catherine Buchanan McDonald died Sept 26, 1836, about 2 weeks later. This 60 year old woman died as a result of childbirth, maybe!

Archie, I'm deathly afraid but I wanted to pass this census information on to you along with my guesses as to what it means. Please let me know what you think. I'd appreciate the loan of I'll's Alexander S. chart and the maps -

Sincerely,

Chuck

- ① I HAVE USED IDELLE'S LIST TO PLACE "KNOWN" CHILDREN, WITH ALEX S. AT 1805 AS A HUNG FROM HIS WEDDING IN 1827 -
- ② DON'T TAKE THE 1800 LISTINGS SERIOUSLY, SIMILARLY THE 1820 ARE BOTH HARD TO R
- ③ WE NEED MORE GIRLS! ONE OR MORE IN THE 1800-1810, ALSO ONE OR MORE IN THE 1810-1820 PERIOD. CATHERINE AND SARAH ANN BOTH MISS A BIT.
- ④ PRETTY STRONG EVIDENCE FOR A BOY IN THE 1804-1810 PERIOD. BET IT'S ALEXANDER S. ALTHOUGH HE HAD MARRIED IN 1827 SO WOULDN'T SHOW UP IN 1830 UNLESS HE LIVED WITH ANGUS PRIOR TO GOING TO MISS - NO, THEN HIS WIFE WOULD TURN UP AS A FEMALE WHO WAS 20-30 (BORN IN 1808, ∴ 22)
- ⑤ VERY STRONG CORRELATION FOR A BOY AROUND 1817.
- ⑥ SAM MAY HAVE JUST BEEN CAUGHT IN 1840, BUT WHY NOT IN 1830?
- ⑦ WHY DON'T CATHERINE (AND SARAH ANN) SHOW UP PROPERLY IN 1840, AND FOR THAT MATTER, CATHERINE IN 1830?

IDELLE'S LIST SHOWS SEVERAL OTHER CHILDREN, NAMELY JANIE, PLUS 2 BOYS PLUS AN UNKNOWN. THAT GIVES US AT LEAST 4 MORE CHILDREN!
MY GUESS IS FOR ONE TO THREE GIRLS IN THE 1800-1810 PERIOD, ALEX S. (1804-1810) ^{AS WELL AS ONE OR 2 GIRLS} A BOY ABOUT 1817, A GIRL ABOUT 1822 AND SAM ~ 1827 (FROM CENSUS DATA), FOLLOWED BY CATHERINE (1828) AND SARAH ANN (1836). - DO YOU SUPPOSE CATHERINE COULD BE THE FEMALE IN THE 1830 & 1840 CENSUS WHO WAS BORN 1820-182 INSTEAD OF 1828 ??? - ALSO, MAYBE SARAH ANN WAS BORN IN 1830-1835 INSTEAD OF 1836 AS IDELLE HAD IT - IT IS CLOSE - JUST WHERE DID SHE GET THE DATA ON ANGUS'S CHILDREN ANYWAY ?? SHE MUST HAVE DIED EARLY - BESIDES, THAT WOMAN (CATHERINE BUCHANAN McDONALD), BY OUR COUNT COULD HAVE HAD 12 CHILDREN OVER A 36 YEAR TIME SPAN, INCLUDING SOME POSSIBLE BIG GARS - IF SHE WAS BORN IN 1776 AS I'M GUESSING, SHE COULD HAVE DIED A FEW DAYS AFTER SARAH ANN'S BIRTH (IF YOU INSIST) ON 9/10/1836 - I'M GUESSING, AS I SAID EARLIER, THAT CATHERINE BUCHANAN DIED 9/25/1836. SHE WOULD HAVE BEEN 60 -! NO WOMAN WITH THAT LARGE A FAMILY COULD HAVE LIVED TO 90! IT CHECKS RATHER WELL WITH THE CENSUS DATA - SHE WAS GONE BY 1840! PROBABLY WORN OUT!

Sunday

Dear Archie,

Sorry that I didn't get a note off to you sooner but I was in Washington, DC again this week on business - Did not get a chance to call Doris Lawrence again but I feel that should wait 'til I've sent her a note on her material. The letter to me is enclosed as is the excerpt from the Lytle Clan Booklet she sent (A).

This Booklet has several interesting listings. First on pg 5 is a Sarah McDonald born on Isle of Skye. Wonder if she could be related to Angus McDonald. Next on pg 7 is Angus Leach son of Archibald and his first wife - Sarah Ann McDonald and his second wife Jeanette McMillan. It says she ^{Jeanette} had one son John Alexander Leach. The latter is Doris Lawrence's grandfather! Thus it appears that Sarah Ann McDonald had no children and Angus Leach married a second time to Jeanette and that is Doris' line. What a coincidence! BUT before we get carried away let me throw a little cold water on all this. According to the ^{list of the} Leach Cemetery on Sneads River Rd that you sent, we have a big problem -

The A.C. Leach B Oct 29, 1829 - Died Oct 28 1903 isn't Angus Leach cause he is supposed to be b Aug 20, 1820 and d March 4, 1881. Also his wife (A.C. Leach) is listed as Flora in the Cemetery list. Further the cemetery list shows John A. Seach b Aug 4, 1848 and d May 13, 1897. This is Doris Lawrence's grandfather, son of Angus Seach and Jeanette McMillan. Idelle's list shows Sarah Ann as being born 10 Sept 1836. She couldn't have married Angus Seach, died, had Angus remarry and had a son by 1848. Either we have the wrong birth date for her, for John A. Seach or something! Maybe we even have the wrong Angus Seach! Four houses over from Angus McDonald in 1860 census there is an Angus Seach age 59, born in Scotland who seems to have a wife named Catharine and 5 children. ^{are} Pattersons, Buchanans, McNairs, McNeill's all around! This Seach family is busier to keep up with than the McDonalds. If we have the wrong Seach, maybe we have the wrong cemetery also for Angus McDonald and Catharine Buchanan — who knows???

Now on to the Dictionary of Scottish Emigrants to the USA ⁽⁸⁾ I'll admit it is intriguing but it doesn't prove it is our Angus McDonald. In particular, it does not say that his father went back to Scotland, much less the Isle of Skye for our Angus to be born. I have many listings of Angus McDonalds coming to the USA but none seem to tie in with our Angus. Besides, if Invernessshire is with Inverness, it is on the other side of Scotland from Isle of Skye. Incidentally,

I'm enclosing a good map of Scotland for you to keep. It's the best I've found so far - I'll get another for myself -

I am returning the Allen Edens family booklet by Estelene McDonald Goolysar. I have made a copy of it for my records.

I note that ^{of} the two girls who married McDonald boys ^{one} wound up in California. I need to trace that back to see if any information on the Angus McDonald line came with them.

Probably no one alive who knows. The last date is for a John McDonald who died in 1962 but didn't marry.

Well Archie, I need to get some chores done. I'll get back to you shortly -

Chuck

Dear Chuck,

My trip to North Carolina was not too productive. The difficulty for my brother and me is that we have never lived in Laurinburg, and we have never known too many people.

My brother knew of the Giles Lytch cemetery, but he had never visited it. He verified that the "old cemetery in the woods" (Across from the Leach Family Cemetery) was a black cemetery and is probably no longer there. It probably has not been used in a hundred years.

About 30 years ago my Uncle Giles Leach gave me a little booklet that had been prepared by the Lytch Clan. I am descended from the Leach (Angus) clan. I have zeroxed a few pages that may help you. Uncle Giles did help in the preparation of this history. He was an invalid(arthritis) from about the age of 50 and was in a wheel chair. A person who visited Scotland in search of family roots said that the man they met looked very much like Uncle Giles.

Because of our losses in Laurinburg through theft and vandalism, we are going through a difficult time. We feel very violated. The Archibald Leach House was an Historical Landmark-they stole it. My grandmother's house-just destroyed. My oldest daughter said to me, "At least they stole from us; we didn't steal from them. " Perhaps character is the greatest heritage we can give our children. Although at this time I am not finding much comfort in idealistic thoughts.

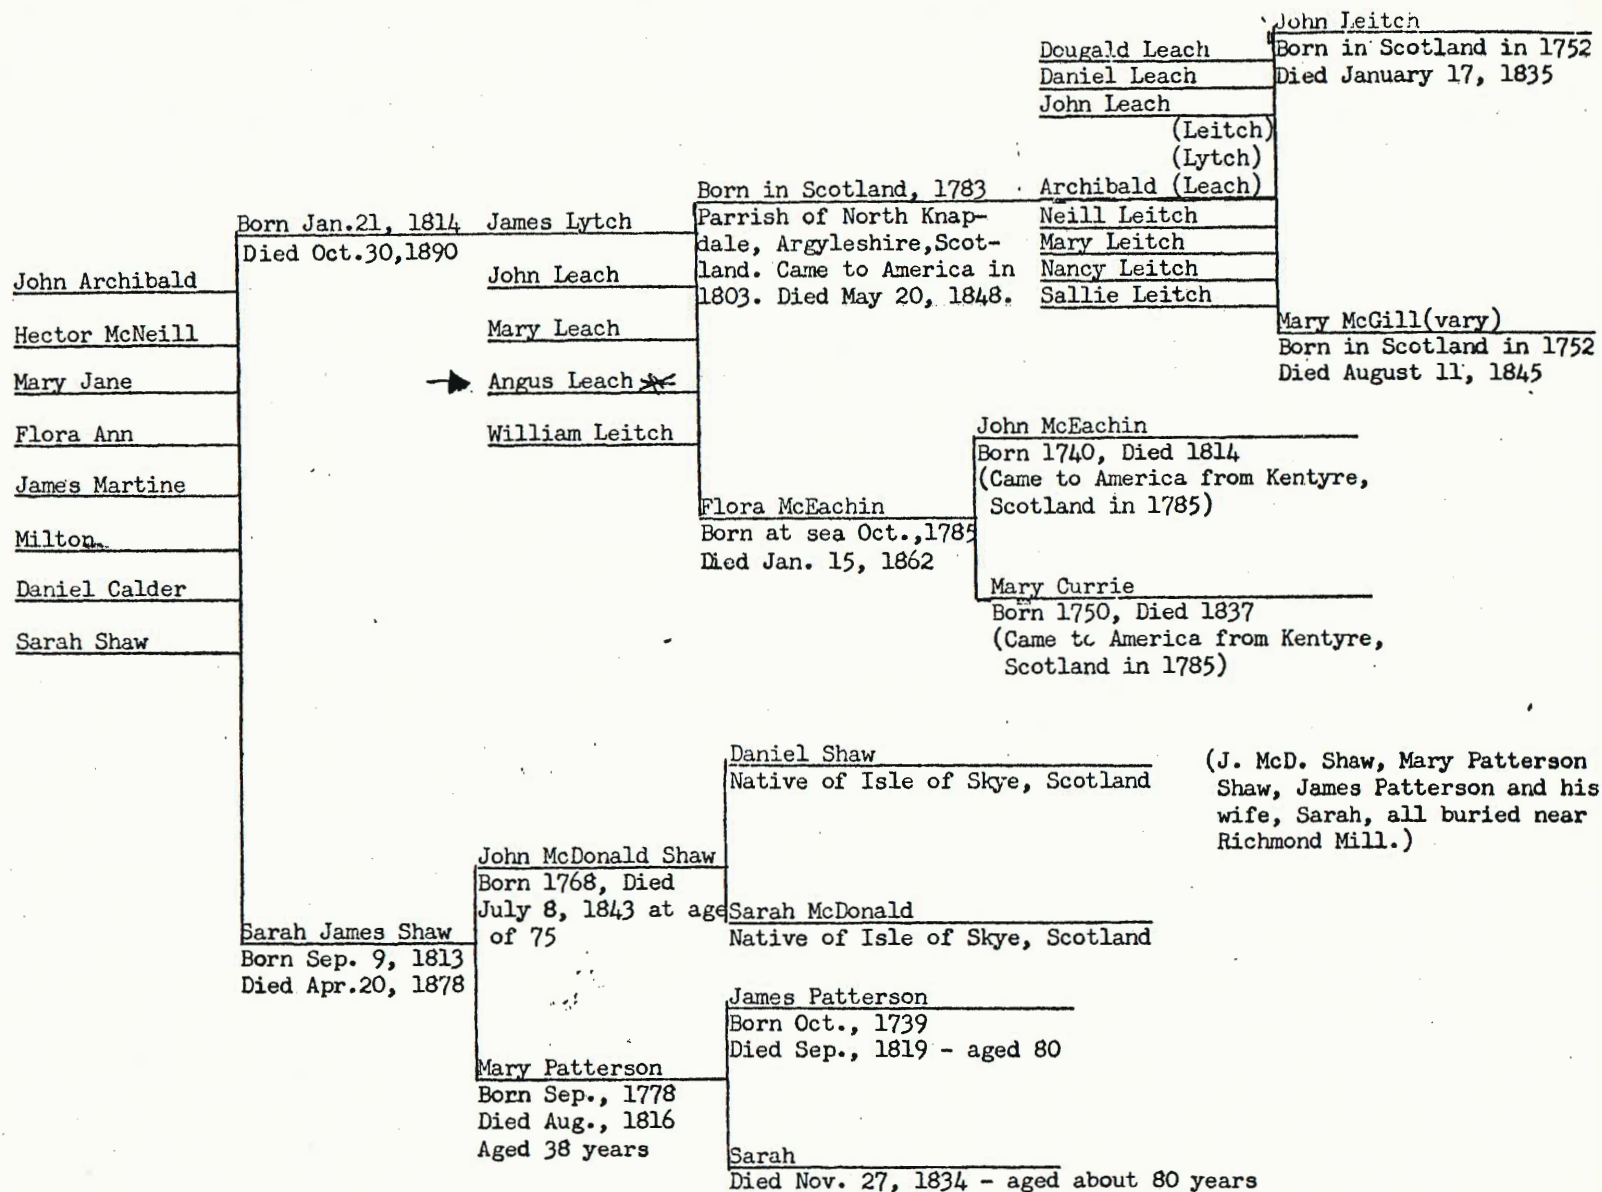

I hope that the enclosures will help you. I certainly wish you luck. And perhaps if you are in Washington, we can meet sometimes.

Sincerely yours,

Doris L. Lawrence

WILL OF JOHN LEITCH

In the name of God Amen I John Leitch of the State of North Carolina and County of Robeson being of sound mind and memory do make this my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say:

1. I give and bequeath unto my beloved Mary my wife one-half of my possession of land also one Negro boy slave named Ben and Negro girl named Kate together with one-half of my stock of horses, cattle, hogs, sheep & so forth during her natural life, after her death to be equally divided betwixt my two daughters Nancy and Sally and after their deaths their whole portion belongs to my S Neill. I also give and bequeath to my son Neill Leitch the remaining half of my land and stock of all kinds together with a Negro boy slave named Cooper. Also I give to the said Neill Leitch one-half the money which is due to me, the other half I give to my daughters, Nancy and Sally. I also give and bequeath to each of my sons, Dougald, Daniel, John and Archibald also to my daughter Mary one cow, all to be taken from my stock previous to any other division. I also request that my son Neill and my daughters Nancy and Sally should agree together that my daughters Nancy and Sally shall have possession of this house in which I reside. I also request that my son Neill shall have possession of the new house already built on the premises.

Finally I nominate, constitute and appoint my son Neill Leitch my sole and lawful executor to carry this my last will and testament into effect, revoking and disannulling other former wills, legacies, bequests heretofore made by me pronouncing and declaring this my last will and testament.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this day being the 27th day of October, A. D., 1824.

/s/ John Leitch
His X Mark (SEAL)

Signed, sealed and declared by John Leitch as his last will and testament in the presence of us Daniel Leitch and Archibald Graham.

Robeson County, February Term 1835. This will duly proven in open court by the oath of Daniel Leitch and ordered to be recorded. (s) A. McEachin, Clerk.
Book of Wills 1 at page 290.

At the time of the death of John Leitch, he was living near Elrod. The house has been destroyed, but there is a cedar tree standing nearby. Some of his children are buried in that general area. Another is buried in Stewartsville Cemetery, and several are buried in Scotland County. An item of interest is the execution of a deed one year after the death of our ancestor, Archibald Leach, the fourth child of John Leitch, that is recorded in Book AA at Page 496 in Robeson County, and is signed by Neill Leitch, Sarah Leitch, Nancy Leitch, William Lytch, Mary Lytch, Angus Lytch, John Lytch, James Lytch, Mary McRae and her husband, Norman McRae, Duncan Leach and Dougald Leach.

The will of Archibald Leach, executed one month before his death in 1848, uses the spelling "Lytch", and a letter of recommendation from his minister in Scotland and witnessed by one of the officers in the Church, commending him to the people that he might come in contact with in this country, spells his name "Leitch". His tombstone is designated with the spelling of his name "Leach".

Among the descendants of James Lytch's brothers living in this area, are:

Miss Sallie Gilchrist, Mr. N. P. Gilchrist, Miss Irene Gilchrist, Miss Mary Patterson Leach, Miss Margaret Leach, who are all descendants of John Leach. (Miss Nannie Leach, Miss Cora Leach, Mr. Giles Leach are descendants of Angus Leach.) William Leitch has no surviving descendants, and Mary Leach was never married.

John Leitch and his wife, Mary McGill (or McGilvary) were natives of Scotland. His will was probated in Robeson County in 1835, Book of Wills No. I, Page 290. He mentions the following children: Dougald, Daniel, John, Archibald, Neill, Mary, Nancy and Sallie. Their fourth child, Archibald, was born in July, 1783 in the Parish of North Knapdale, Argyleshire, Scotland. He came to this country in 1803. He married Flora McEachin, a daughter of John McEachin and Mary Currie, who came to Robeson County in the year 1785 from Kentyre, Scotland. Flora McEachin was born on ship during the journey over here. She was one of seven children. The others were Margaret, James, Edward, Peter, Nancy and Mary. The children of Archibald Leach and Flora McEachin were: James, John, Mary, Angus and William.

James Lytch married Sarah James Shaw on March 16, 1837. Sarah J. Shaw was the daughter of John McDonald Shaw and Mary Patterson.

✓ John Macdonald Shaw was the son of Daniel Shaw and Sarah Macdonald, who were natives of the Isle of Skye, Scotland. (Daniel Shaw's will was probated in January, 1800, in Richmond County, Volume 1, Page 81. His second wife was Catherine McKay of Richmond County.)

Mary Patterson was the daughter of James Patterson and his wife Sara. We find James Patterson's will probated in Richmond County, Volume I, Page 207.

The children of James and Sarah J. Lytch were: John Archibald, who died during Civil War and was never married, Hector McNeill, Mary Jane, Flora Ann, James Martine, Milton, Daniel Calder, and Sarah Shaw. Their family records follow.

Dear Anne,

Your very unexpected arrival today - as you may know, I have copied your wife's family chart and used it extensively in my own research - I have purchased a copy of her history & was hoping I was going to be able to join you in your quest for our McDonald ancestors if I could in any assistance - To start out, I am sending you a McDonald lineage chart from Angus down to my children, ie 7 generation McDonald chart - as you can see, Angus was at, quite great grandfather. I come from Alexander S, whom u. I believe your line goes from u. - > William -> Archibald -> John Rattray (who married Thomas Keffe - (?) Pickering). I assume these are your pa is from a Thomas of the we are third cousins once. I believe u. she is a great grandmother as a great grandmother. She is Sam D. and I am from Alexander S.

second cousins, therefore. Archie, I have a great deal of census data etc. in North Carolina, near minimal - I understood that Angus came to the U.S. a lady 16 (born on Isle in 1769). Further understanding married Catherine Buchanan (sister of William Buchanan) must have been born in 1769 at (not 1796 as some state at least, if she is the mother of u. (u. was born in 1799 as per your wife's chart. Unfortunately, at my information in these earlier generations comes from your wife's chart and the family stories and is not independent from your data.

There are several Angus McDonalds in North Carolina census from 1790 onwards. If he stayed near Savannah he would have been in Richmond County, and then u. in Scott County was formed in 1889 that part included Savannah he should have been there. If you want to his farm where I live. Did you get that exciting piece of data - Please send me what you have on Angus and Catherine and get back to me of McDonald research.

P.S. Please give my regards to your wife -

Sincerely, Chuck

RELATIONSHIP CHART

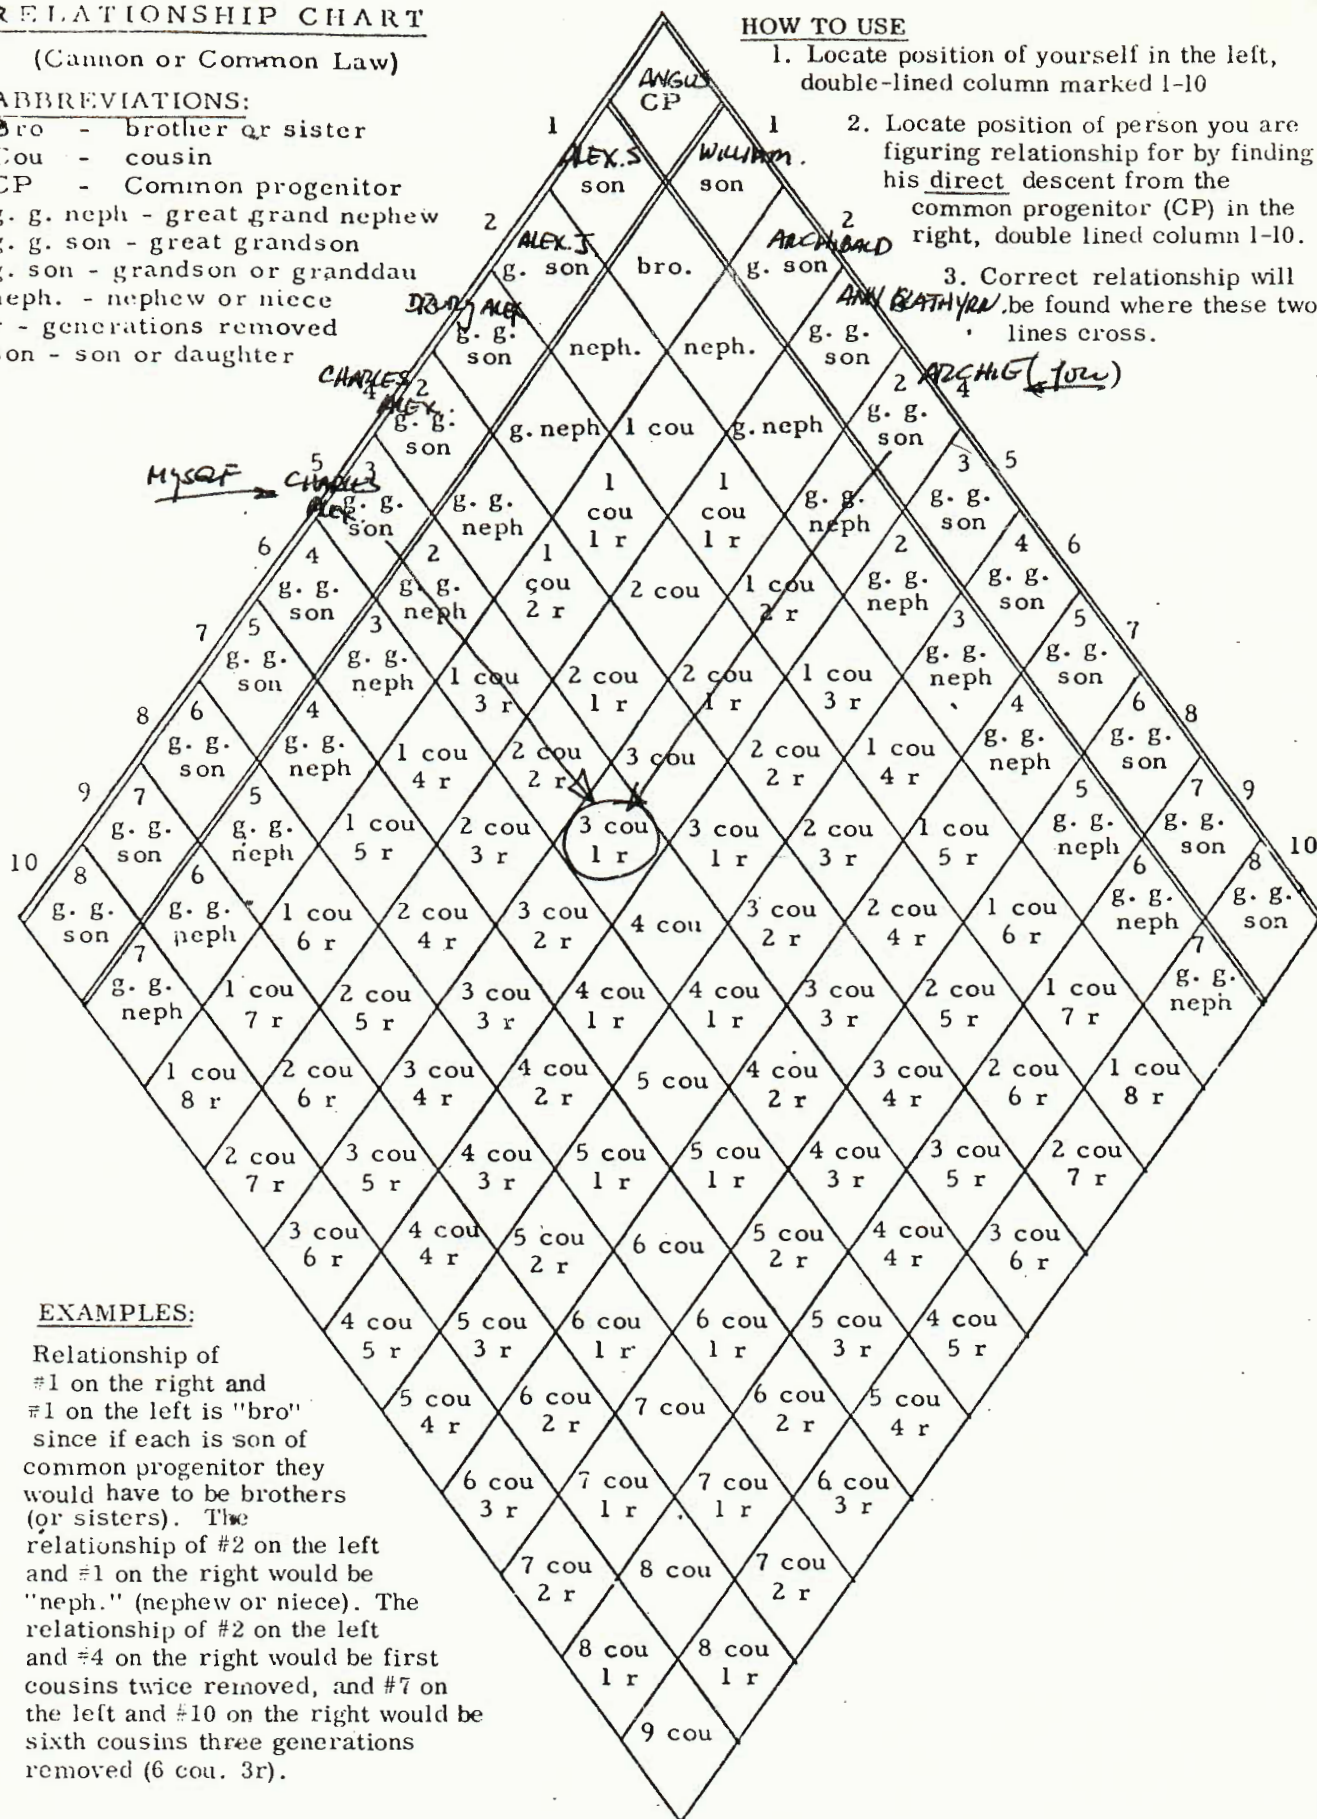

(Cannon or Common Law)

ABBREVIATIONS:

Bro - brother or sister
Cou - cousin
CP - Common progenitor
g. g. neph - great grand nephew
g. g. son - great grandson
g. son - grandson or granddau neph. - nephew or niece
r - generations removed son - son or daughter

HOW TO USE

1. Locate position of yourself in the left, double-lined column marked 1-10
2. Locate position of person you are figuring relationship for by finding his direct descent from the common progenitor (CP) in the right, double lined column 1-10.
3. Correct relationship will be found where these two lines cross.

EXAMPLES:

Relationship of #1 on the right and #1 on the left is "bro" since if each is son of common progenitor they would have to be brothers (or sisters). The relationship of #2 on the left and #1 on the right would be "neph." (nephew or niece). The relationship of #2 on the left and #4 on the right would be first cousins twice removed, and #7 on the left and #10 on the right would be sixth cousins three generations removed (6 cou. 3r).

Dear A. J.,

Getting my personal correspondence taken care of is something that takes a little time - not that I have so much of it, I just don't get around to it. I have been trying to collect the information I have and have finally made a rough-draft of most of it for you. Please excuse the messy typing as I have been running it in on regular routine and not taking time to make everything perfect. You will have to select what you need from it anyway. I would appreciate you not using all of the birth dates of the living cousins that I have listed. Some of them might not appreciate it and have adjusted the same a few years! Then, too, you are going to find that some of the cousins have more family than I have listed. It has been most difficult to keep up with and while I go to the reunion most each year I have not as yet gotten all of the youngsters identified. Most of the time they change considerably during that year and then I have such a short meeting with them that I end up forgetting the name, as one doesn't run around with a pencil and paper asking your relatives what their name is, etc.! The J. C. McDonald, who had the thirteen children, started the reunion with their own family and then asked the rest of us to join them. Uncle Jake and Aunt Beatrice were married 50 years before he died. The reunion is held the first Sunday in June in Gatesville, Texas, at the park there. Ordinarily the group starts gathering Saturday afternoon and they get together Saturday night and then again for the big dinner or picnic Sunday noon when all from the neighboring communities come in. You will be welcome and we will get you notice of the definite meeting, as something might come up to postpone it, but not often. There is another larger McDonald meeting in Texas each year, some time during the summer, but I have never gone to that and have only heard of it. Right now I have forgotten the place and when it is usually held, but there is another McDonald who I used to work with here who told me about it and has gone to it, so the next time he drops by the office (usually once or twice a year) I will ask him again and this time take the information down and pass that on to you.

I notice you mention the name "Hanson Allsbury" which Dad gave to me as Hugh Aushury. This surely must refer to one and the same person as I recognize some of the other names as persons whom Dad mentioned. I have not checked this with any of the other family members. Mrs. McLaughlin was raised by her grandparents and before the end of the year I expect to visit a day or so with her so will check this item with her and let you know.

I was glad to talk to Hurd Pickering when he called. He told me that they would get in touch with me again, but I did not hear further from them.

On a trip back to Collins, Mississippi in the early "1950's" I so enjoyed meeting your Mother and Dad and visiting with them. If you are the son who lived across the road and down a short piece from them, then I also met you and your family. I get a Christmas card from the Ronald Blackwells who live near Collins and are a part of the family. As I write this I suddenly remember one of my favorite Uncles that I left off the list! -so will go back and add his name.

I hope this will be of some benefit to you; would love to see some of the information you get collected.

Sincerely yours,

Edna A. McDonald

P.S. Lena sent me the letter you mailed
J. A. Hughes - for me to take care of.

Dear Wife

I sit tranquilly alone as the great orb of day sinks behind the Western slopes, hiding her majestic face in splinder.

These few lines leave me in good health and enjoying myself as well as can be expected in the dull monotony of war. Hope these few lines may come to hand and find you in good health surrounded with all the blessings and comforts that ones heart could wish for. Times are exciting here. We are expecting every day to meet the enemy in open field of battle or storm the fortress. I have no news worth writing except war news and dear wife you hear plenty of such.

Yesterday was fast day with us but when I rose in the morning I ate a half dozen eggs before I thought of it. But prayed the harder afterwards. And in the afternoon we had a meeting in our place of worship. Had a splended meeting. The great cannons of war heard blasting forth their fury in time of preaching, but were not noticed. It is such a common thing to hear the roaring of cannons that we pay no attention to them.

Today is general review and muster. Marion Woods has returned to camp this evening with three recruits, three of the Cahounds. I ritten you a letter and sent it by Mr. Woods and sent you four rings in it. I want you to write to me soom and let lone know wheather you have recieved them or not. And I have sent you ten dollars by the Captian and John the Same.

It is getting late and I know nothing that would interest you. I would like the best in the world to see you tonight but if we never meet on earth again I trust in God you may live so as to meet in Heaven where all wars will never, never, hurt us again. I will close, give my love to all the rest of the family. Nothing more at present but remain your dear husband until death.

William McDonald

Oh won't you come my Rosa dear and take a ride with me.
My boat is lying just out there and only waits for thee.
She is the nicest little boat upon the Tennessee.
She has the sweetest name afloat I named her after thee.

Chorus

Come take a ride my Rosa dear and then right off we'll glide nor you shall have the slightest fear whilst I am by your side.

The weather now is fine and clear with not a cloud above so take a seat my Rosa dear and right off we'll shove.

I'll tend the sail and you shall steer and when we glide along we raise ou voices high and clear in some nice little song.

You can play this on your accordion I sent by the Captian. Good bye Good bye

My Dearest Cousin,

It is with the Greatest of pleasure that I Attempt to write you a few lines for the first time in my life Though I have often thought of writing to you. I can't say this leaves all for there isn't any of us very well----- bad cold
Mamma had been very puny with her cold for the last few days but is a little bit better now nearly everybody in the Country have got colds and some have got the flu (or fever). Hoping these few lines may reach you in due season and find you all well and enjoying all the comforts of life that your hearts may desire.

I havan't anything interesting to write. We are having a heap of bad weather lately. We have had two snows. It has been raining all day to day and looks like it would continue. Wheat does not look very Well hear. The Winter had been so cold. Dear Cousin I wish you had a been hear Saturday and Sunday to have went to church with me. It was cold but we had powerful good preaching. I use to have some body to go with me of corse I have sombody now but Vickie was nearer my age and I enjoyed her company best. We went to church togather just three weeks before she died. Little did I think that would be the last time we would be permitted to go together. she was taken sick on her birthday and just lived two weeks. She was 18 years and ---days old. All the last week she would say she was going home. It wasn't but a little peace and she would soon be there and I have blessed hope that cheers my breast of meeting her in Heaven there to part no more. I hope I will meet all my Dear Cousins and Relatives in Heaven.

Ma and Pa Hester and Vickie and myself are all members of the Baptist Church. I received a letter from Hester a week or so ago and they was all well. They live in Cherokee County. It is about 50 miles from hear where they live the way we have to go. She has two little girls the youngest one wont be a years old until the 20th of September. She named it Alice after me. I went to see her last summer and stayed over 3 months. I had a real nice time while I was there. I got acquainted with a great many while I was down there and Hester and James (Hesters husband) came home with me. He had been married before him and Hester married. and had two sweet little children. One was a girl and one a boy. They seem to think as much of Hester as if she was their own mother. I think a heap of them, they seem very near to me.

One of Uncle Thomas Lowrey's boys was down here a week or so ago. He said they were all well. Uncle John Lowery has moved to --(maybe Gordon) but not very close to where we live. We haven't found out what his post office was yet. He came to see us last summer, but I was not at home and did not get to see him. Oh if I could only get to see all my dear cousins and relatives. It would afford me great pleasure. I haven't seen any of of Ma's brothers and sisters in a long time. I just can remember seeing my old grandmother one time. Oh if I could only get to see you all one time in life. But I have no hope of ever getting to see you. Mamma says to tell her dear sister that she hasn't forgotton here and she thinks of her many times and wishes she could see her. Tell

We made 3 bales of cotton. Cotton did not do well. Dear Cousin I wish if you come to Alabama you would come to see us. It would not cost you very much. I would be so glad to see you. I wish I could see you aoo once in life. I wrote cousin Mattie last may but never have heard from her since. Perhelps she did not get my letter or she would have written.

It will soon be Christmas I hope we will have a nice time. Though my fellow can't come to see me. He is going down the country bout 150 miles. It is getting late. I will close by asking you to write soon and a long letter to your best friend and cousin.

J.W. Tate;

Dear Brother, Rebecca told me that she got a letter from you and she told me your address. So I wanted to hear from you. So I will try and write you a few lines.

You and Ben and myself is all the men that is alive and Cathrine and Rebecca is all the girls that is alive. I am getting pretty old. I am 81 years old on the 22 of Feburary. Ben is well. Catherine is well but she is awful feeble. Rebecca is well but Jake is pretty poorly. He can't walk across the room without help and he is blind. So you see he is helpless.

You don't know how bad I want to see you. It would make me feel young again to see you. John I have not got my picture but if you get my letter and answer it. I will try to have it to send to you. I want you to send me your picture. I will close for this time. Answer this right away. from your brother George Tate.

Freds have all been sick with bad colds since I went away but they are better at this writing. I hope these few lines will find you all well and doing well with the Lords help.

There has been a good many sick here this winter with typhoid and pneumonia. A good many deaths. But if you were here the place would seem strange to you for the young folks have moved and so many got married and I think I have scratched and written enough nonsense for this time. I will bid you all good bye for this time. From your brother

Dear Sister Patrick ()

Just wonder what you all are doing this rainy nite. It rained out service here and as I was thinking of you all thought I'd write a few words. We like it here pretty good. But I never did like towns as well as I do the country. Its just not as free. We have been having some fairly good services. How are you all progressing? Good we hope. Saw in Mississippi State paper where you was in one of the big 5. Just pray that you all will have a great year. Write us and come to see us sometime. How is Thomas? Billie is fat now. Has come out a lot. Pray for us.

Undated Letter from Rose to her granddaughter Ronda Gale Rameriz. Naomi's daughter.

Dearest Rhonda.

You have never recieved a letter from me, but I feel an urge to write you a few lines. You know I suppose that you have always been one of my favoriates being the first grandchild was one thing. Then I use to take you places and buy you the best things, You can't remember these things but after a while, when the others all came along I could not afford the things I would have done for any of you. It was not because I did not want. I might have shown a difference between some of you since you have all begin to grow up, but it was not because of less love. Some of the times I've got things for some who did not have anything to wear. For Instance I may seem awful hard hearted and mean at times, but really I'm just an old softie. You probably hardly even know Cisco, who is your half brother. (on Her fathers side). But your mother remembers when I took him and baught clothes for him, when he did not have anything. I've always had a compassion and love for what I call the "underdog", even at work. If a waitress came in and was dumb and couldn't do the work I'd work twice as hard to help her.

I know that you and Pam are begainning to grow up to be young ladies. And it is a rough time to have a little boy around and adjust to it. Really it isn't fair to eather of you, in a way, but what is life if we don't sacrifice? Honey the Bible tells us that "Jeaouslsy is cruel as the grave. It can work in young lives ans well as marriages and any source of life.

But try to look on the other side, to the one who have never been shown any love. I thing if one doesn't have love from the youngest to the oldest of us, it is one of the most cruel things in the world. You have never had to experence that and feel not wanted by mother, daddy, or anyone. You are one of the lucky ones in this world especially the way it is going today. I'm sure honey, you are big enough to give a little love and at some time stop and think if you were in the same position. It is a sacrifice I know. I lived it all of my life. Even from the time you Great grandfather and Bobby Joe, my brother, which I don't think I've ever talked to you about.

Beleave me it is what is really deep inside and in our hearts that count. I beleave that with all my heart.

There is a verse I'm going to put here that has helped me through many things that I thought I'd never overcome. "Be still sad heart and cease repining. Beneath the clouds is the sun still shinning. Thy fate is the common fate of all. Into each life some rain must fall." (?)

Even when I was a teenager and had only two old dresses to wear to school, this verse helped carry me through. The going gets rough some times but if we try hard enough we can come out on top. My Mother worked so hard all of her life for us children. She was left widowed. I can't remember my father even. After she left us (died) when I was only nineteen, I shed many tears because I had never really shown her any real love. No one ever had a better mother than I had. She could have adopted us all out when we were small but she worked herself to death to get us up to where we were. It did not take long after she was gone when all the responsibility fell on me to realize what I had lost although I did all the washing for the family and helped cook and went to the field and worked from sun up to sundown. She would bring us a nice cobbler in the middle of the afternoon, so we would not get too hungry. It was not her fault she showed us love in all the little ways A mother could. She was not a perfect woman in many ways but all she ever did wrong was for the sake of trying to make life a little better for us children. A year had not gone by before I realized I had lost the most precious thing I had. The reason I did not show my love to her in my heart I was critizing her for the wrong she did. I thought she had to be perfect and if she cursed I was ashamed of any thing she did, not realizing I would some day do maybe even worse. No one can be perfect nad some come to the real bad end. But some times the love we show can do so much. You know the Bible says "Love covers a multitude of sins".

Sometimes I'd feel like I could not live with myself, not ever having shown the love (to) someone I should and I almost could'nt, at that time of my life. Sometimes the lack of love can send one off the deep end. Some are stronger than others. We are not all made alike. If I could have had a letter like this 47 years ago I might have been saved many heartaches remembering the love and compassion I failed to give.

I'll probably never write to you again.

So long sweetheart.

MARY DOUGLASS (dau. of Duncan Douglass) b. 18 Mar 1818 Marlboro Co., S.C.; d. 23 Feb 1854 Richmond Co., N.C., bur. Douglass Cem. near Laurinburg, N.C.; m. John McDonald, b. 1801, Richmond Co., N.C.; d. 31 Dec 1864 Richmond Co., N.C.

Mary Douglass McDonald is buried in an abandoned cemetery near Laurinburg, N.C., where two Douglasses are buried who are members of the family of Daniel Douglass of Richmond Co., N.C. Other McDonalds buried there are Angus and Catherine (Buchanan) McDonald (John's parents) and their son Alex and dau. Sarah Ann Leach.

Mary died young, aged 35. When her brother, John Douglass, died 10 year later on 7 May 1864, he devised to Mary's children 1/3 of his estate. The War of Secession ended before his estate was settled; his slaves were freed, and his property destroyed. About the only thing left for the McDonald children was a share in 272 acres. See John Douglass will and court proceedings attached.

Children of Mary Douglass and John McDonald:

- i. Catharine Buchanan McDonald
- ii. Angus H. McDonald, b. 1847
- iii. Duncan Douglass McDonald, b. 1849

A descendant of Mary and John McDonald, Mrs. Estalena McDonald Goodyear of Mullins, S.C., had this to say in a letter written in 1963: "Mary and John McDonald lived near present day Laurinburg, Scotland Co., N.C. John McDonald was the son of Angus McDonald, b. 1769 on the Isle of Skye, Scotland, who came to this country as a boy. Angus McDonald married Catharine Buchanan (dau. of William Buchanan), who was 27 years his junior. The other children of Angus and Catharine McDonald were Neil, Hugh, William, Samuel, Alexander, and Sarah Ann who m. Angus Leach; poss. others. One son moved to Arkansas, one to Texas, and one to Miss."

JOHN DOUGLASS II (son of Duncan Douglass) b. 22 May 1820 Marlboro Co., S.C.; d. 6 May 1864, aged 44, Marlboro Co., S.C., unmarried.

John lived in his parent's home along with his brothers and sisters. In his will he bequeathed his estate to his sisters Catherine and Elizabeth, and the children of his deceased sister, Mary McDonald, wife of John McDonald; also he named John McDonald executor of his estate. The appraised value of his estate at the time of his death in May 1864 was $20,000 which included 22 slaves valued at $15,650, a saw mill, and 272 acres of uncleared land (part of his grandfather John's land). His sister Catherine died a few days after his death--her share reverting to the McDonald children. His sister, Elizabeth, married Dr. A. W. Hamer on 28 Sept., and John McDonald died 31 December not having settled the estate. Whereupon Dr. Hamer was appointed administrator, the War ended, the economy collapsed, and after several years of litigation, the estate was bankrupt. The 272 acres were sold by the Sheriff for delinquent taxes. Dr. Hamer and Mary's son, Angus H. McDonald, bought it for $50.

Alexander J. McDonald, born; 1830, in South Carolina. He moved with his parents to Robson County, N. C., then to Simpson County, Miss., then to Covington County, Miss. He was 20 years of age when they moved to Covington County, Miss. Alexander J. McDonald is listed in the court records to settle his fathers estate. In the quit claim on his fathers property in August 1855, he signed seperatly from the rest of the family.

McDonald Family File #1

We were told that Alexander J. McDonald died of an axe wound while chopping down a tree. We find his wife, a widow, and the children with her parents Clarke County, Miss., in 1880 census. Thus Alexander J. died between 1870 and 1880. Mary Ann Bynum McDonald died about 1922.

Samuel David McDonald, born 1832 in North Carolina. He was 9 months of age when his parents moved to Miss. There is a great deal of information on Samuel D., some of which is provided by his obituary in 1915. Some of this information is incorrect. He was born in 1832, not 1822. (His parents married in 1827.) Then he was 83, not 93, at the time of his death. He was the 3rd son, not the 1st son of Alexander S. His older brothers came to Mississippi and had families also as did his younger brothers and sisters. His grandfather Alex McNair was born in Scotland but came to U. S. as a child of 3 years and could not have been married to Effie Little at the time. (I think Effie was born in South Carolina per 1850 census for Simpson County). So I don't know where the pot hooks, pans and cross cut saw came from that are mentioned.

He did marry Louisa Southworth in 1855 but he was more nearly her same age (maybe 8 years older) according to census data. He did serve in the confederate army.

Census data on the family is summerized below;

1860 Census	1870 Census	1880 Census
Covington County	Simpson County	Covington County
S. D. 27 S. C.	37 S. C.	47 N.C. N.C. N.C.

Samuel Sr.	9 Miss.	19
Richard	6 Miss.	16
Samantha	4 Miss.	14
John David		10
Alexander		8
Laurin		6
Wm Jasper		1

He acquired part of his fathers property at auction in 1857.
Louisa J. McDonald died April 24, 1924
Samuel David McDonald died May 23, 1950
Both are buried in McDonald Chapel Cemetery near Collins, Miss.

Cornelius "Neill" L. McDonald born 1835. The first child born in Miss., according to 1850 census. He attended Zion Seminary School, and later signed his fathers estate papers.

Sid Simpson Recalls stories his mother, Edna Earl McDonald Simpson told of the family. His grandmother, Elizabeth McNair McDonald, wife of Alexander S. McDonald, living with them. Elizabeth was blind at that time. Edna Earl learned to read by reading the bible to her grandmother.

Effie is the one whose clothes caught on fire before the fire place and she was horribly burned and died as a result, she is buried in Hardy Street Cemetery, Hattiesburg, Miss.

Charles A. McDonald, Jr. states his family tree was started in 1960's (Idelle started mine shortly after 1962). Charles further stated the real beginning for him was 1981 when his wife traced his fathers sister, Ina McDonald Donald and son Johnny of Slidell, La. After an interval of 40 years we had met, it was a pleasant visit of several days during which we informed Ina and her son John J. of our trip to Mississippi via Hattiesburg. They suggested contacting Judge Stranton Hall. We did and had an interesting several hours during which we tried contacting Ruth Massengale and Idelle Pickering and others for us to visit. He was successful in contacting Sid Simpson. We arranged to meet later that day in Collins, Charles A. McDonald, Jr., Sid Simpson and Ruth McDonald Massengale, Idelle and Archie could not be located. (What a tragedy). We three cousins set in Ruth's living room telling family stories we each already knew. We did not know how we were connected. (Idelle had the chart, what a mess!). The three of us descended from Alexander S.

Calvin McDonald, the fifth child of William McDonald and wife, Margaret McLeod McDonald, was born, Oct. 12, 1836, on Little Terrible, Covington County, Miss. on the original homestead SE $\frac{1}{4}$, SE $\frac{1}{4}$ section 2, T 8 N, R 17 W, Covington County, Miss. His parents along with Angus, Hanson, and Nancy moved to NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of SW $\frac{1}{4}$, section 1, T 9 N, R 15 W, in north east corner of Covington County, Miss. in 1859. This left Archie and Calvin on the Little Terrible homestead. Calvin McDonald was mustered into service in the Confederate Army May 14, 1862, as private, Company G, 7 Batt'n, Miss. Volunteers. He was discharged Aug. 31, 1862 due to ill health. Calvin McDonald moved into the home of his parents, William McDonald and wife, Margaret McLeod McDonald. They were living on NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of SW $\frac{1}{4}$, section 1, T 9 N, R 15 W. Oakohay District, Covington County, Miss. In 1870 census Calvin was living with his parents. On July 21, 1872 Calvin McDonald bought homestead one half mile north of his parents. Lot 1, section 35, T 10 N, R 15 W. On Nov. 10, 1873 Calvin bought from his parents:
NW $\frac{1}{4}$ SW $\frac{1}{4}$ section 1, T 9 N, R 15 W
SW $\frac{1}{4}$ SW $\frac{1}{4}$ section 1, T 9 N, R 15 W
Which is part of William McDonald's Oakohay Homestead. Calvin McDonald was still living with his parents. By 1880, evidently Calvin McDonald had bought the remaining homestead from his parents since the 1880 census shows William and Margaret in the household of Calvin McDonald.

Mary McDonald was born 1827 on Little Terrible, Covington County, Miss. to parents William McDonald and wife Margaret McLeod McDonald. Mary lived here until 1856 at which time she married Henry ^{W. EASTERLING. HENRY} had grown up and was living in north west corner of Perry County. William McDonald, father of Mary, had gone to below Runnelstown, Perry County, Miss. to visit his sister, Catherine McDonald, who had married Daniel Angus McGilvary.

Daniel Angus McGilvary was the son of Alexander McGilvary and wife Mary Elizabeth McLeod McGilvary. Mary Elizabeth McLeod McGilvary and Margaret McLeod McDonald, wife of William McDonald, were sisters. William's sister married his wife's nephew.

So while William and Margaret were visiting kinfolk their daughter Mary became exposed to the Easterlings. William got 400 stalks of sugar cane from the McGilvary's and lost a daughter to the Easterlings.

In 1856 when Mary married she was 29 years of age. I think without proof Henry W. Easterling and wife Mary McDonald Easterling lived for a time on NW $\frac{1}{4}$ of NW $\frac{1}{4}$, and SW $\frac{1}{4}$ of NW $\frac{1}{4}$, section 36, T 6 N, R 12 W. which is on the south border of Jones County, Miss. It is futher thought with out proof he built his residence and out buildings on west edge of SE $\frac{1}{4}$ of NW $\frac{1}{4}$, section 15, T 6 N, R 14 W, Jones County, Miss. ¹⁹⁶² some of the log buildings were still standing in 1910. It is thought he built this residence before the war so his wife could be close to her people.

After the children of Henry W. Easterling and Mary McDonald Easterling grew up, they moved to Ellisville, Miss., in 1885. In 1890 Henry W. Easterling sold to his son William Archie Easterling his holdings on Leaf River.

In 1891 Henry W. Easterling and wife Mary, sold out in Ellisville, Miss. and moved back to their homestead on SE $\frac{1}{4}$ of NW $\frac{1}{4}$ section 15, T 9 N, R 14 W.

They lived here until they died. They are buried in southeast corner, NW $\frac{1}{4}$ of SW $\frac{1}{4}$, Section 10, T 9 N, R 14 W, Jones County, Miss. on top of Sandy Knoll behind a nigger house. The niggers have removed all grave markers.

Johnnie Calvin Easterling was the first child born to Henry W. and Mary Easterling. He was born 1857 and "grew up" on his fathers homestead on SE $\frac{1}{4}$ of NE $\frac{1}{4}$, section 15, T 6 N R 14 W Jones County, Miss.

In 1880 at age 23 he married Susan Dees, age 22. He started his homestead on SW $\frac{1}{4}$ of SW $\frac{1}{4}$ section 3, T 9 N, R 14 W, Jones County, Miss. John was very close with money and was able to accumulate money. By 1900 John and Susan had 9 children. John got a job as marshall at ^{Miss} Mise on G & S.I.R.R. a nigger jumped him on a trussel and John threw the nigger off the trussel and then carried him to jail. This was about 1900. 1905 John's first cousin, Annie Kathrine McDonald Pickering needed \$1600.00. John Loaned it to her. John was always close to Tom and Annie.

About 1910 Covington County, Miss. started consolidating schools. Johns nearest consolidated school would be Calhoun at Hot Coffee. It was three miles as the crow flies, eight miles by road across Reddocks Ferry.

Sebastion Barnes lived across Leaf River one mile from John. Sebastion "Bash" was a big wheel in the school. Sebastian wished to cut a tree across Leaf River and let John's children walk three miles and cross Leaf and Okahay Creek. John said the law required the school to transport his children in a wagon the eight miles by road. Sebastian would not agree.

When the school building was about complete it burned one rainy winter night. The blood hounds were called out and the dogs trailed to John's back door. A pair of rubber boots were found at the back door. The boot track at the school showed the hole in the sole same as the one at the back door. Sebastian had nailed John's hide to the wall this time. They went to court to make John build a school house. John loved court because he could spend the day in court and spend the night with Tom and Annie; Tom and John would sit up most of the night talking. John said he did not burn the school house. John said he was home all night, the court got Susan his wife on the stand and she said one of the children was sick and John did not leave the house. One of the jury was Hiram Page. Hiram said Susan would not lie, so that hung the jury and John was free.

About 1885 a baby was found near Hebron abandoned. John and Susan agreed to take the baby, raise it and give it their name. That baby became Ben Easterling. Ben told John he would burn the school house if John would give Ben Janie who was about the same age. John agreed. Ben burned the school house and got Janie. When the court learned this it was so ashamed it did nothing else.

Some time after this John was making whiskey. He planned to bring a load across Reddock Ferry Bridge into Covington County. His grandson Deputy Sheriff Gallaway Magee learned of it and he was going to catch grandpa. Gallaway _____ himself on the west side of Reddock Ferry Bridge and waits for John.

John had a nigger boy driving the team. When John discovered he was waylaid, he lay in the bed of the wagon and told the nigger to lay whip to the team, and John started his winchester 30-30 popping. Grandson Gallaway got out of the way. John turned up the Hot Coffee road and told the nigger driver to leave and not come back. John said the whiskey belonged to the nigger.

About 1920 Ben Pickering had moved his family to Louisiana. John would go to Ben's each fall to hunt deer. He would stop at Tom and Annies on the way home and report of the trip.

In the early 1930, Ed Dent was in court at Laurel and learned the law was going to raid John. Ed told Hurd to warn John. Hurd got Tom and visited John and told John way they were there. John said he was not guilty. They sat around and talked at length. Finally John said, "Susan bring the boys some brew." Susan brought it in her arms like stove wood. John carried them out to the pig pen and showed them where he buried a five galon jug in the pig pen. The pigs rooted the stopper out, Hurd brought some home. He called John's "Tumbleturd Brandy."

Susan's father was John Terrel Dees and lived with his son, James Miller Dees. John Terrel had arthritis so bad he was bent and bed ridden. Susan and John kept John Terrel a while but John Terrel abused Susan so bad John got his walking stick and got in the bed over John Terrell and told him if he did not behave he would do him in. In a few days James Miller came with his truck and put John Terrel in the covered back. As they left John Terrel waved, "Fare the well old John Easterling".

John and Susan are buried in Salem Cemetery Covington

William Archie Easterling was the second child of Henry W. Easterling and wife Mary McDonald Easterling. He was burned 1859. Archie lived with his parents until about 1885 whe he married Henrietta Strahan. He and his wife still lived with his parents until Henry W. Easterling sold his homestead up on leaf river to his son Archie. Henry W. Easterling moved to Ellisville, Miss.

In January 17, 1895, William Archie Easterling bought from the U.S.A. the homestead of his father Henry W. Easterling, SE $\frac{1}{4}$ of NW $\frac{1}{4}$ section 15, T 9 N R 14 W, Jones County, Miss.

Archie Easterling was living on the Henry and Mary Easterling homestead when Annie Kathrine McDonald and Thomas Jefferson Pickering married there Dec. 13, 1896. Archie later moved to Covington County in the Eminence Community.

The Easterling boys were not good auto drivers. Archie told Tom he hit a hickory nut tree and hickory nuts rained for fifteen minutes.

Albert Victor Easterling was the third child of Henry W. Easterling and wife Mary McDonald. He was born Nov. 16, 1861 on the Henry W. Easterling homestead, SE $\frac{1}{4}$ of NW $\frac{1}{4}$ section 15 T 9 N, R 14 W, Jones County, Miss. up on leaf river. He lived here until about 1885 when he moved to Ellisville with his parents Henry W. and Mary Easterling. Albert Victor Easterling met Mattie E. Riley in Ellisville, Miss. and married her in 1886. Albert and Mattie bought a house and lot between Deason Carter and Anderson Streets on Deason Street, on March 15, 1887.

Clarence Easterling was born Oct. 25, 1887, the first child of Mattie and Albert.

Dec. 29, 1887 Archie McDonald died leaving Annie age 12 an orphan. Mattie and Albert took Annie to raise. Annie Kathryn McDonald lived with them until she married Thomas Jefferson Pickering Dec. 13, 1896.

Albert Victor Easterling and wife Mattie E. Riley Easterling children;

Clarence born Oct. 25, 1887 Ellisville

Albert born 1892 Ellisville

Inez born Mar. 3, 1898 Ellisville

Ruby born Aug. 2, 1900 Ellisville

1902 Albert and Mattie bought lots 9 and 10 of block 14 original survey, town of Collins, Miss. On lot 10 was a large three story house, across the street from Dr. Ramsey. The Ramsey house is still standing-1985. The Ramseys had two boys and two girls all about the same age as the children of Albert and Mattie. Albert stayed in Ban King and Mercantile until 1917. I remember the Easterling girls and Ramsey girls coming out thru the cotton patch going to the plum orchard singing, "Polly-Wally-Doodle All Day, You get a line and I'll get a pole and we'll go down to the craw-dad hole, Babe." That embarrassed me quite a bit. I did not think nice girls should be singing like that. Albert took little Albert and Clarence out west on a trip. Little Albert and Clarence quarrelled all the way. They stopped out in the desert, got out of the car and had a big fight side of the road. Big Albert was small, fraile, asthmatic. He couldn't get out and beat hell out of both of them. Albert could not drive a car. He and his family left our house one afternoon and he was determined to drive the car home. He was in the ditch before he went five hundred feet.

Jan. 17, 1922 Mattie and Albert sold out in Collins and moved to the Henry W. Easterling homestead, on SE $\frac{1}{4}$ of NW $\frac{1}{4}$, section 15, T 9 N, R 14 W, Jones County, Miss. They lived here until Sept. 1, 1926, when they sold out and moved to Jackson, Miss. Where their daughter Ruby was finishing medical school. Ruby Easterling married Jessie Martin Tyler, M. D. and they lived in Livingston, Alabama. Ruby later took care of of Albert and Mattie's last days. Albert and Mattie are buried in Hardy Street Cemetery in Hattiesburg, Miss.

HUGH C. MCDONALD

A large part of the information of Hugh C. McDonald in Covington County, Miss. (is obtained from the memoirs of Claiborne McDonald, son of Hugh C. McDonald,) Born, Dec. 11, 1799, and wife, Catherine McCollum.

Claiborne McDonald wrote his memoirs about 1900. Claiborne was a well educated and knowledgeable person a Methodist Minister, and Circuit Rider.

Soon after 1820, Hugh C. McDonald left for Covington County, Miss. Hugh C. McDonald settled on the SW $\frac{1}{4}$ of NW $\frac{1}{4}$, section 16, township 8 north, Range 17 west, in Covington County, Miss. on what became known later as the Laurin Magee place on Dry Creek.

No record of his purchase of land or sale of land has been found.

The Covington County, Miss. Court House at Williamsburg burned in 1853, and destroyed all land records, which were in the Court House.

A few people had copies of their land deeds at home and were able to have the copies recorded.

Hugh C. McDonald could not purchase the land he settled on, as it was sixteenth section school land. He could only lease the land. These early lease records were destroyed also.

Hugh C. McDonald, son of Angus McDonald, was born 1799, in N. C. and came to Carlisle's Mill, in Perry County, Miss. in 1853. But he was not a wealthy slave owner. It is safe to say he did not own any slaves, and was not a member of the legislature.

Hugh C. McDonald, son of Angus McDonald, and wife Catherine McCollum came from Covington County, Miss. in 1853, and settled in Perry County, Miss. in what became in 1906, Forrest County, Miss.

In 1853 Hugh C. McDonald and wife Catherine McCollum moved to SW $\frac{1}{4}$ of NE $\frac{1}{4}$, section 2, T 5 N, R 12 W, his water mill was on McDonald Mill Creek, and his residence was adjacent to the mill, south of the Mill Creek and west of a road which ran north and south across Mill Creek. His cemetery was located south of the Mill Creek and west of the road, and adjacent to his residence.

Perry County Pioneers

A hard working people

"Carlisle's Mill, near Jones County line was an important mill in early Perry County Pioneer days. John Carlisle owned the land but sold it in 1853, to Hugh McDonald, who was born in Perry County, in 1831. McDonald was a wealthy slave owner, and one of the first legislators from the County. He changed the name of the settlement to McDonald's Mill."

There were two Hugh McDonalds in Perry County, Miss. One lived south of Augusta, in Perry County, Miss. the other Hugh McDonald is Hugh C. McDonald who lived north of Augusta, in Perry County, Miss. The one south of Augusta is not of the family of Hugh C. McDonald, north of Augusta.

The writer in the Richton dispatch confused the two.

At this time 1853, Hugh C. McDonald and Catherine McCollum had Children:

Peter	Age	23
Mary Jane		20
Austin		19
Claiborne		17
Henry		16
Duncan		12
Rosanna		12
Christian		10
Catherine		8
Neill		53 Brother to Hugh C.

Why Did Hugh C. McDonald and wife Catherine McCollum McDonald, wigh their nine children move to then Perry County? First he could not won the land on which he had settled on in Covington County, Miss. second his wife's people the McCollum's had settled in Perry County, Miss. very early, and his sister Catherine McDonald McGilvary and her husband Daniel Angus McTilvary were moving about the same time with their children from Covington County, Miss. to just below Runnelstown in Perry County, Miss.

Daniel Angus McGilvary was moving adjacent to his parents; Alexander McGilvary, born 1783, and wife Mary Elizabeth "Polly" McLeod McGilvary, born 1790.

MEMOIRS OF
ELLA BEATRICE EUBANKS (MCDONALD) WIFE OF
JACOB CALVIN MCDONALD
BORN MAY 6, 1883

My children wanted me to write the story of my life, so I am trying to write just a short story. It begins with I was borned near Ring-Gold, Georgia in 1883 to Henery and Betty Eubanks. My father, his Mother, and two brothers owned a big farm but the farm was all torn up by a civil war battle that was fought there on the farm, the big house was torned down, so I was borned in one of the nigro houses only one of the slaves stayed on. My dad and mother was borned right after the war in 1862 when Grandmother died the boys sold the farm but they gave the negro slave some land and money and Uncle Tom and Uncle Joe moved to Ala. Uncle Joe was a book keeper for a Big Saw Mill Co. So he wanted to move to Ala. and Pappa work for the saw mill Co. so we moved there. I don't rember much about Ga., as I was only a little over four years old Jim was a baby. Granny was borned in Ala. near Plantersville. Timber was getting scarce there so Pappa wanted move where more timber was so we moved to Miss. near Ellisville, Miss. and Papa was wood boss for Philis Saw Mill Co. for three years. Nola was borned there in 1894 then we moved to a farm near Taylorsville. Pappa filed on some land in Covington Co. near Taylorsville. Margie was born in 1896 there. Pappa built a nice house and barn on his land and we moved there in 1897. We cleared the land built fences and when I got married in 1899 the farm was in good shape. Pappa worked at a saw mill part time, there was a lot of fine timber on the farm so after I married he sold the timber and farm and moved to Collins, Miss. and run and owned a gin there. Now for my life after that. I married in 1899 to your Dad he owned a small farm that he had bought from his father for 800 eight hundred dollars. It taken us nine years to get it paid for, but we did make a misstake in 1901, went to Oka. to try to get some land did not get the land and we had sold our stock and rented the farm out your Dad got sick out there with chills and fever so when we came back to Miss. from Oklo. we did not have a home to go to. I don't know what we could have done but go to my Dad and Mother as your Dad was sick. Then Alex came after us and your Dad worked in his shop until we got our home back we did not have any money hardly to live on, one calf we did not sell had a calf so we had milk and my Dad helped us with some money and lots of meal as he owned a griss mill but we worked very hard with five children. I worked in the field, so when we left Miss. we was doing good had the farm paid for and had some money besides.

Now I was only 26 and had six (6) children.

Troy born Oct. 23rd, 1900

Orbria April 13th 1903

Thelma Feb. 16th 1905

Ruby April 30th 1906

Maria July 11th 1909

Hazel Dec. 3 rd 1907

These are the children born in Miss. near Taylorsville, I was happy even if I did work hard. I did not know what trouble was I had my husband, my children and all of my family. Now all of your Dads family except Alex had moved to Texas in 1901 your Dad mother got sick over there and he went to see her, she did not die, but later. He never was happy in Miss. after that Johnie keep writing to us and told about land that could be gotten by fileing on in co near Rankin no Ranckin there then tho. So we sold out everything we had got 1000 one thousand dollars for the farm we had built a nice house on it and was doing so good.

Now my troubles begin I had to leave my father & mother all my brothers and sisters but that was not the worst of it. We moved to the most afull place in the world no school, no church, plenty of blowing sand, rattle snakes. Your Dad and Johnie bought a drill well as your Dad did and they drilled wells a while. The children, Magie, Roy and myself stayed in a little shake we hat the lad two sec what a fily had to live on it three years to fram it out. Your Dad and Johnie had some truble. So they sold the well drill and your Dad got a job holding an irrigation ditch down, for a big Co. but the afull thing hapened there. We lost our darling baby Maria, it was 40 miles to where the nearest Doctor was. She did not have a chance we had to bury her there in that God forgotten place. Grandfather McDonald came, he beged us to leave there he could see it was to much for me. Your Aunt Magie went crazy there he was living with Willie had his farm rented out he told us he would hold the farm for us and would live with us there, so that winter we sold the two secans of land for a new wagon, two big pirchen black horses and a 11 hundred dollars and moved to grandfathers farm he lived with us untill he died he was one of the best men I ever knwe he left me a horse and buggie, a cow and a calf. After he died they wanted to sell the farm we bought it for 3 thousand and 50 dollars our part was 600 so we paid all the children off just one at a time. We worked hard there and the 10 years we lived there I had 7 seven children but lost two. Ruby fell down at school hurt her knee, blood poisen caused her death that allmost killed me. Then we lost a little baby two weeks old with locked bowles so we had our trouble there too. My Daddy died while we lived there too. I got to see my folks while we lived there had not seen them in ten years. When we moved to Grandfathers farm from Rankin the girls and me Thelma, Hazel, and Ruby came on the train GrandPa meet us in Galdswaite and stayed at your Aunt Maggies until your Dad and the boys drove through with the horses waggon and buggy and horses and our house things. Troy and Orbria the horse and buggy, well we lived there 10 years our children was growing up and we only had a 7th grade school there so we wanted to sell out and move where there was better schools. So we sold there and bought a farm at Arnett near Gatesville had to give 2000 dollars more for the place than we got for ours. Then the first year there in 1925 we did not make anything on the farm on account of no rain, dry weather, so we had to sell out then we bought the old farm near Jonesboro that D. W. owns now. All of us sure did love that farm but we sure have our troubles there in 1927. In March, I was raking cotton stalks and the horses run away with me on the rake I fell off the rake and just crushed my right leg the Doctor that came said I would not live over it, but your Dad, Hazel and Mr. Jim Panter carried me to Waco to the hospital. I was there four weeks I suffered a full bad, but I came home and was in a wheel chair a while then on chruches that fall I walked on chruches to the field and picked cotton I would tie my chruches to my cotton sack I crawled on my knees but I had good knee pads. We made a good crop that year. Well we made a good crop every year and made a good living every few years we would have an over flow on the Lean river and the water would get most of our crop, but all of us worked hard. But we was happy then the deprisian came but it did not hurt us so bad because we raised so much on the farm to eat and our cotton crop brought enough to buy what we could not raise on the farm. Well about that time Johnnie called us and told us that they had struck oil on his land and wanted your Dad to come out there so he and Orbria went, the children, Blanche and me picked cotton while they were gone Orbrian had lost his job in Shreveport, La. and he Blanche and Ward was living with us. Johnnie gave us five thousand five hundred dollars and all of his brothers and sisters that amount ours sure was spent fast but we bought ten milk cows from Bob Dyce gave him a hundred dollars apeace that was one thousand dollars, bought Orbria six cows for six hundred dollars Orbria and Blanche moved out and tried selling milk like we did but they could not make a go of it. So he sold the cows and bought Robert Dickson hardware store, it was all run down and Orbria need some money to restock it so your Dad let him two thousand dollars. The store burned down so that was lost, so was the six hundred dollars for the six cows lost. We bought a New Desoto car and we had to help some of our other children too. Thelma and children stayed with us a while but they sure did help us in the field picked cotton hoed johnson gras helped can stuff, helped in the house. Then W. P. A. Come and they moved to Levita. Things run pretty smoth for a while Olis, Arvin, and me still milked cows, I raised a big bunch of turkeys and worked in the field hoeing johnson grass, picking cotton helped bale hay. Then we sold milk to the Borden Co. at Gatesville for fifteen years that was our part of making a living. Then the children begin to leave home. Orbria and Thelma got married when we lived at Hamilton Co. My brogher Jack got Tray a job in Shreveport, La. in 1925 while we lived in Arnett and Hazel got married there. The first to leave home on the old farm was Otis it sure hurt me when he had to leave home on account of his health. He joined the Navy went to Norfolk, Va. He got a job there for James in a big Electric Co. Then James got D. W. a job there in the same Co. that just left Arvin at home. Arvin and me still milked the cows. Then Arvin got a job in South Texas and he and Vestel got married, that left your Dad and me alone, but we still milked the cows we made a good liveing and saved some money. Then the bottom felled Pearl Harber and war, Arvin was drafted we allready had two boys in service Otis and Bob. That sure did hurt us we was so uneasy about our boys of corse we knew that thousand of other parents had boys in the service too, but these was our boys and we prayed that God would take care of them.

Then the afull news came that Bob was killed that crushed both of us. We just give up quite milking cows, I don't know untill now what become of all the cows. Think we sold some of them to Charlie Roebuck. Then D. W. Came home he thought he was going to be drafted but his crippled leg keep him out. So we bought a New Ford tractor and a bunch of plows and farmed the place for two years. Then he got married and we built the rent house for them. We lived in Jonesboro one year before we built the rent house. We had a little work don on the old farm house bought a few peaces of furniture but we was never happy again after Bob's death. He had just his money in the bank on his and mine name I could check on it and did even before he was killed he had four thousand dollars in the bank and left me his car. I sold the car for 11 eleven hundred dollars he also left me four hundred worth war bonds. Your father lived six years after Bob's death. We traveled a lot that six years went to Miss. two or three times, went to Organ to see Mildred Carrell and children. Went to see Orbria at Brownsville and a lot of other places. Then your father got sick, the doctor said high blood pressure and hardening of arteries he died Jan. 30, 1950. That was the worst blow of all for me I felt like the world had come to an end. We had traveled to try to help our grief over Bob death now I was left alone. I tried to stay at home on the farm tried to get someone to stay with me but could not so I tried stay there a year. I was afraid and lonely. Carrell and Mildred came to see me from Organ they could see how lonely I was. They told me could not take it like that so after a year of it I went to Miss. and from there went to Fla. to see Otis & Lucille. From there Lucille and me went to see James at Toms Brook, Va. We went from there to Washington and other places her people. I made this trip from Collins, Miss. to Green Cave, Fla. over a hundred miles alone there came back to Collins. I had met Mr. Nelson before I went to Va. he was a friend of Mr. Land Nola while in Va. I got two letters from him while there I also met Virginia father I had never even thought about getting married again. He told me if would not stay in Va. to go back to Miss. and marry Mr. Nelson he seemed so glad to see me back sent me roses flowers so after five months of seeing him. I told him I was going back home to Texas. So he said if I would marry him he would go with me so we got married. When I got back home I was so happy I loved the old farm. I hung my clothes in the closet no more lonely or afraid for nine years it was that way. We went to church every Sunday. I taught the ladies bible class he was supendent of the Sunday School class for a year, we went on traveled too. We went back to Miss. after my mother was liveing he had six children and a sister there too my mother sure did like him- So then I had another blow he got sick with cancer and died, it was a full again for me. I was left alone lonely and afraid again. I know I was lots of trouble to Tray & Blanche and Otis and Lucille. Otis and Lucille helped me so much while he was sick, helped me with the cows and other things. I was so afraid at night and would go spend the night at Trays and Blanches Mr. Nelson and me had saved some money he got a pretty good and I got half of his. I was still getting Bobs insurance besides another Va check. We had planned to do some work on the old farm house he loved the old farm too. So now he was gone. So I spent nearly all the money on a new 61 Dodge car. I did not make any more long trips alone except I went to Robert Lee a lot to see Thelma and Children I should have bought a place there. I went to Hamilton one day to see the dentist about my teeth he was busy so I had to waite in the waiting room. A Mr. Cox was there only one in there having some work done too on his teeth, he looked nice only under weight only 117 lbs. tall but thin dressed in cow boys boots stetson hat, so we talked about how lonely it was to be alone so after that he called me everyday and would come see me for lunch, he was allmost starved so I was so lonely and afraid I made the mistake of Marrying him. I was just a cook and house keeper but I was not afraid, he gained weight fast but sit and smoke his pipe all day the house was full of smoke, but he was a good man and was good to me, but he sure was stingy. So while there we sold the old farm that hurt me I had no home to back to so I put my part of the money in the bank so I could buy a home of some kind I would not spent it for anything the 1961 Dodge car I bought this car a 1964 Dodge car with money I had before I sold the farm gave 15 hundred dollars between them. I still had my 1000 ten thousand to buy me a house I had worked nearly all my life for a home if I had to have one then in 1966 Mr. Cox died on Christmas day. So I was left alone again Mr. Cox had left a well to me but Mackey Contested it, said his mind was bad the old Judge in Hamilton let her win. I did not have a good lawyer, I went to see Mildred and children at Fort Worth. When I got back home all the doors were locked. I could not get in the house all my cloths a new bed room suit cost 250 dollars. all my grocerys and a lot of other things was in the house. So I knew where there was an arn crob bar was, I was going to break one of those beautifull windows but Tray and Blanche was there and tray got one of the windows open. I could not stay there. So I Moved out stayed at Trays and Blanches stored my things in the old farm house in Gatesville until I could buy one lived in the rent house four months while liveing there. We got the news that

James had got burned to death that allmost killed me and the rest of the family too. I dont think I will ever get over it. I think about it in harror yet. I gave 40 dollars a month rent on the house I had to buy some furniture when I moved there, then after looking for a house so long I found the rock house I liked it at once and bought it for 8000 eight thousand dollars. I only had 2 thousand an a little over dollars left after buying it so I put one thousand on savings account to stay there in the bank for to help bury me. The rock house needed some repairs the wall paper was tearing off the walls, old draps on the windows, old carpets, but I was not going to spend the buryel money and have not spent it yet. I had let James have 4 hundred dollars too. but I was still lonely and afraid. The winter in 1968 was cold and bad. I just had to stay in the house it was so lonely nothing to do then the first of March I got sick about 12 oclock one night cramp and vomitcing I ran and unlocked the door and called Otis & Lucille they called Tray and Blanche and D. W. they rushed me to the hospital I was real sick after that I was lonely than ever. I felt so alone I prayed that I could get a companion so I would not be alone in my old age. Then I meet John (Penehouse) he lived in an apartment in Cameron Texas he was alone too and had been bad sick too. So we decided that we needed each other and got married right away we lived at the rock house three years, but both of us had worked hard all our lives and there was nothing to do there we were both able to work we felt cooped up but we had each other and we was not lonely any more. We both loved to go places and visit our children and our other flalks. We went Miss. several times went to Robert Lee often and to see all his children and mine. We was ready to go to Miss. to hear Jim will read when I got my foot broken. I ewnt and started to go get morning paper on the side walk, the leaves and grass was wet with frost I slipped and fell broke my foot in three places so we did not get to go. I stayed in the hospital a week then John brought me home I was in a wheel chair for a while. John sure did take care of me he sure did not have any help. I sure wish my children could have come to see me more often but I knew most of them was to busy and I sure did wish my grand children would have come too but they did not even come to see me when I was in the hospital. Then while I was still in the wheel chair some other trouble came up a business deal, happened before John and me married I was bothered about my broken foot was afraid I would be crippled, guess I was just not myself I worried to much it was not the first time I had been hurt, my foot begin to heal and I could walk again I had been confined in the wheel chair and in the house so long I wanted to get out John would take long walks every day I could see that he wanted something to do, we looked at some places there in the edge an out in the country at Gatesville but did not find anything looked in Flat Belton and other places we wanted a place out where we could have a garden and maybe some chickens and neighbores not be housed in, we put the rock house up for sale we thought it might be a year before it would sell, so we got in a hurry had to find another place because just in a few days after we put the house up for sale

we could sell it and did, it sure did worry John he was afraid we could not find another place that we would like, so we found this place here in Buckhalts gave 7000 5 hundred for it but we have spent about 1000 one thousand on it sence we have been here bult glass door and windows up stairs built cabinets a tool house planted trees and grass hauled sand and picked up rocks. John son in law brought his tractor broke up the garden, and John has had a good garden every year sence, he work the garden with his tiller and hoe. We have painted the house John and Charls built the up stairs stairs ways porch and windows. John children are so good to help him but there is so much to do here we can a lot and put things in the freezer and now we are paying on a new sewer sistem allready have paid 287 dollars on it, but we are happy here we have had some trouble John fell on the ice and broke his hip in 1971 but he soon got over that able to work again, he likes to work, he helps in the house waits on me, sure takes care of me if I had looked all over the wide wourld I could not find a better man he is the best and I love him. I dont know what I could do without him his children loves him and comes to see him often, I wish my children loved me like that and come to see me likes his do. well I have come to about the end of my story I have had a hard life worked hard and had lots of trubles all I have to show far all the hard work is this little house in Buckhalt but I have John we have each other plenty to eat and we are thankfull I have made many mistakes and blunders but I have allways done the best I knew how and the Lord has given me stringth to go through in 1903 and stayed until 1909.

Most of the following information is from a grand daughter, of Jacob Calvin and Beatrice.

She is; Wanda Smith

Box 356

Robert Lee, Texas, 76945

Johnnie Angus McDonald had moved to Girvin, Pecos County, Texas, in 1904, and kept writing Jacob Calvin his brother to come out there where there was plenty of land and Jacob Calvin could use his mechanical talents to improve his water well drilling business.

Jacob Calvin was not content in Miss. after his Lawton, Oklahoma experience. "So in 1909 he moved a screaming red headed wife and 6 children under 12 years to west Texas (Rankin, Upton County) Texas, by covered wagon.

Johnnie Angus McDonald had taught school (never knew where)but after drilling water wells around the country he settled to ranching in Upton, Pecos and Crane Counties in Texas.

The Yates family had moved from Miss. and was Papa's (Jacob Calvin) neighbor-also Johnnie Angus too. The Yates lived in a dug-out longer than our family did.

It was told that Jacob Calvin, Johnnie Angus and Mr. Yates fussed plus the fact Jacob Calvin and Beatrice had lost a daughter-Marie.

The historical committee in Upton County located this grave - it has been restored, fenced and marked.

"1913 Jacob Calvin McDonald moved his family from Girvin, Texas to Vista Mountain near Ewant, Texas. Jacob Calvin bought his father's, Hanson A. McDonald Farm"

"On this farm 7 more children were born. Please note from 1909 to 1913 there were no children born in the dust storms of west Texas."
Granny Mac was unhappy.

"In 1927 oil was discovered on Mr. Yates's land. (this Yates field is still the largest producing field in the world.)"

"By 1930 Johnnie had oil wells and gave each brother and sister $5000 each. Granny Mac spent $1150 of it on a blue Desota car. Ever after that she had a new Desota or Dodge until 1978. Papa (Jacob Calvin) never had a drivers lisense and never drove a car."

In 1924 Jacob Calvin McDonald and Wife Beatrice moved to a farm west of and near Arnet, Coryell County, Texas.

8

In 1926 Jacob Calvin McDonald and wife moved to a farm 4 miles south of Jonesboro, Texas. The farm is at Weaver Chapel, near Weaver Bend on the Leon River, in Coryell County, Texas.

Jacob Calvin lived here until his death: Jan. 31, 1950.

Jacob Calvin is buried in Murphee Cemetery Ewant, Texas.

Ella Beatrice is still living - 1985.

Dear Eugene,

Am glad that you are interested in the genealogy of the McDonald family. It has long been a hobby of mine. I only wish it was more complete. Seems as if the Birth, Marriage & Death dates are all important, and I don't have them all.

Am sure about the brothers - John D., Hugh and Anguish landed in Charleston, S. C., when they sailed from Scotland. They went to Mobile, Alabama, later on. I have heard Papa tell it many times.

Our Grandfather William B. was born in Mobile, Alabama, in 1822, and he was 12 years old when they moved to Jasper County. He was the oldest child.

Papa said he thought the abstract of title to the Battle House property would show the sale of their 5-acre ranch of land by the McDonald brothers.

When they left Mobile one of the brothers settled in Ala., and the family kept in touch with them; but after the Civil War John D's family lost trace of them.

Am sending you data copied from my book. I started writing some of the data down before we left West Point. Papa talked to his father so much about all that had taken place. I am glad that he remembered it so well.

I would like to find out what place in Scotland they came from and the exact date they left there. What clan they came from, the McDonald plaid, crest & coat of arms, if there was one.

I found this information but have not investigated.

MacDonald of Clanranald, his kinsmen
McDonald of Kin-loch - Midart
McDonald of Glencoe
McDonald of Keppoch

were followers of Charles Edward and James Stewart as their rightful sovereign and considered the House of Hanover as that of Usurper.

There are so many dates of birth, marriage and death that I would like to have in the McDonald, Loper & McCormick families. I believe they could all be found in Hopewell Cemetery. I would also like to have the name of John D. McDonald's first wife. I know that his second wife was Sara Carter.

I have some other things that you might like to have. I have a description of Paulding in that day. I know about "Moss Hill", a few things about the Indians, High Hats, Isaac and Sara. The McDonald family knew the family of the lost lamb. Every one was very concerned when they had to send out a party for a lost lamb.

Do you remember Indian Susie, the Hay Ride to Garlandville, picnic of Uncle John Rishers, fish fry at Horn's Pond, the orchard, the spring, the fig trees, pecan trees, the Magnolia on the south side of the house, Rube, the mule? I'll quit before I give you nostalgia.

I have about the same chart on the Loper and McCormick families that I have taken down for the McDonald family.

You know papa's Great-grandmother lived with them after her husband, Bill McCormick, died. He lived to be 105 and she (Sabra) to 103. They came from Virginia in a covered wagon.

Let me know if I have sent anything that you did not have and if you have some data that I do not have, please pass it along.

As ever,

Your cousin

Clan - McDonald

After the year 1800 the McDonalds, spelled MacDonald originally, sailed from their home in Scotland. They were prospecting in the Western World. They landed in Charleston, South Carolina, and lived in the Carolinas awhile.

Three of the brothers - John D., Hugh and Angus (called Anguish) went to Mobile, Alabama, about 1820. Here they prospered as cattle dealers. They owned a five-acre tract of land that they purchased from the Indians for a ranch. This tract was sold later to Mr. Battle in exchange for slaves. Mr. Battle built a hotel on this site and has been known as the Battle House ever since and is still one of the famous hotels of the South. John D. McDonald also ran a ferry on Dog River and had a home near the ferry.

John D. was married to a North Carolinian. They had six children. William B., the oldest son, then George and David. Betty was the oldest daughter, then Margaret and Anne. Here the family lived in peace and plenty for about 12 years.

The cattle ranch was sold. The brothers looked for new fields.

I found an article in the last issue of Holland's Magazine telling about a very old Presbyterian Church in Mobile. I feel very certain that John D. McDonald and his young son, William B., must have attended this church. It shows the picture and it must have been a wonderful structure in that day. Hollands has been featuring the famous churches of America.

About 1832 John D. McDonald purchased a plantation in Jasper County, Mississippi, the original tract being 10,000 acres, from the Indians. The home site was near the present Penantly. Penantly Creek ran through part of the land. The 10,000 acres started at Garlandville, then south to Rose Hill Community. It was sold to settlers coming in covered wagons. They were from the Carolinas and Virginia, mostly.

Now the task of building a new home was before the family. With the help of slaves and a colony of Indians who were allowed to stay on the purchased land.

The first home was erected. It was built of logs, floated down Dog River and then hauled by ox teams, and hewn with a broad axe. Some lumber was used. The living quarters in the center, the kitchen and dining room to one side, more rooms on the other side. There were many slave families and quarters were built for them. The Indians preferred to live in wigwams of their own making.

The furniture for the house was purchased in Mobile but was imported from England and France. Their clothes and carriages were bought in the same place. There were slaves and more slaves to wait on them.

By this time there were other families to settle near by. People from Virginia and the Carolinas. This made an ideal community. The McCormicks, Lopers (moved from Jones County, Mississippi, to what we know as the Gandy place) Boltons, Dents, and Pruitts were some of the first to come. There was inter-marriage to the extent that most everyone was kin.

The best of teachers were employed to teach their children. Dr. Waddell was one of the instructors. William B. was one of his Latin and Greek scholars and took over his school at Pleasant Hill when Waddell was called to U. of Miss. The pioneers were a religious people and often brought their own preachers. William (Bill) McCormick was one of the favorite preachers. He lived on Beale Creek, was a Methodist and kinsman.

John D. McDonald was said to be tall and handsome. He was 6 ft. 2 inches and had black hair. He was a Mason, Presbyterian, proud of his family and land. He always wore fine clothes of broadcloth and silk hats. He lavished wealth upon his children. They had their own slaves to come at their bidding.

In 1859-1860 a new home was built for the John D. McDonald family. The old home was torn down and the lumber and logs used to build a store.

An Irishman, Michael O'Brien, who lived in England, was employed to build the home on the same site. The home was built of heart lumber, hauled by ox teams from Mobile. The house was painted white inside and out. The skilled workmen were so perfect that it was hard to tell where the planks joined, especially in the walls and floors. The same architect built six different homes in this settlement. Among them, Col. Harry's home at Garlandville and Narcissus Graham's home, five miles south of the McDonald home. The McDonald home cost $10,000. The sills came from Mobile.

The furniture and furnishings for the McDonald home were mostly imported. The owner had so many slaves that he did not know some of his own Negroes when he met them. Home was completed about 1 and one-half years before the war.

William B., born in 1822 in Mobile, was the oldest son and married Mary Loper. They built a log house near by and Mary was given some slaves at the time of her marriage. Some of the most faithful were Bracens, Weary, Rhett, and her daughter Fruse. Wagner and Poor were other trusted slaves. I know the story of how the slave Poor saved Grandmother's supply of meat in the smokehouse from the Yankees.

There were seven children born to this couple. Masalette, Marcella, Ada, Annie and Rebecca. The sons were Julius and Charlie. These children were served by their former slaves' children, Antony, Willis, Phil, Dock, Anderson and Sam. Also, Viney - Sylvia - Dicie.

George McDonald married Martha Pruitt. Their children were Arch, John, George, Molly and Emmitt.

David McDonald married a Miss Carter. They lived at Biloxi. There were three sons - Julian, Will and John, and a daughter who married a Mr. Elder.

The oldest daughter Betty married a Mr. Reed. The children were Martha, who married a Mr. Finch and lived in Texas, Betty, Margaret, George and John.

Anne McDonald married Bill Foley. The Foley children were Bill, Betty, who married Mr. Hidleburg, Mary married Mr. Bolton. Jim, Sam and Henry were the other children.

Margaret McDonald married Bill McCormick of Waco, Texas. (An editor).

Sallie McDonald, the youngest, daughter of Sara Carter (second wife) married Mr. Barber of Texas. The Barber children were Maggie, Clara, Ella, Sallie and Charlie.

The first Hopewell Church was built before the war and was built of logs, hand hewn, and were 90 feet long. There were four builders and they were kinsmen. They were Jim McCormick, William B. McDonald, Aaron Bolton and John Loper. Later on, after the war, the log church was replaced by a frame church. It stood for many years and was burned. It was replaced by a modern brick church in 1933.

The gloom of war now hung over the McDonald family. They faced the reality of seeing William, George and David volunteer for service and leave for the battle front. Now, the family had only the faithful slaves left to protect their homes and loved ones.

John D. McDonald did not get to live in his new home very long for he died not long after the war started. He died at the age of 62.

William B. McDonald belonged to the 37 Miss. Volunteer's Infantry. He enlisted in Captain Frank Loper's Co. at Garlands-ville, Miss. in 1862 - Later surrendered at Greensboro, N. C. in 1865. He saw service in Loring's Div., was in Joseph H. Johnson's and Hood's Army. He took part in battles at Dalton, Ga., Sand Mountain, Lookout Mountain, Chicamauga and Resacca. He knew the agony of walking in the snow, with bleeding feet. He suffered for food and was ragged and tattered when he was mustered out. On his way home he was given good clothes, food and shelter by some kind sympathizer. He was at once reminded that the Bible said, "I was once young, now I'm old. Yet, I've never seen the righteous forsaken or the seed begging bread." This information was given to J. J. McDonald by a relative who was right with William, all through the war.

George McDonald saw service in Forrest's Cavalry.

David McDonald also saw service with Nathan B. Forrest.

Mary Loper McDonald did not only see her husband William go to war but her three brothers, Mack, William and Ben Loper.

Mack Loper was in Captain Blaylock's Army. He was in the Battle of Shiloh.

William Loper was in Lee's Army. He was wounded in the arm and it was so serious he could not come home when the war was over. Some kind family in Virginia nursed him back to health. He stayed on to help them make a crop to repay them in some way for all they had done for him.

There was great rejoicing over his home-coming for his family had mourned him as dead. There was not much chance to send letters that far. His mother was shocked over his return that she kept on with some work she was doing in the garden when they told her, "William is here." A little later she went in to meet him.

Ben Loper was a sharpshooter in Stonewall Jackson's Army. After the war he went to Necagodoges, Texas.

Captain Frank Loper was Mary's first cousin, John Loper's son, Peter's nephew. Frank Loper's children were Dolly, Ella and John. Ella Loper married Mr. Armstead and lived at Newton, Miss.

Their son, Frank Loper Armstead served in World War I and won distinction on the battle front, capturing a German troop, and a nest of machine guns almost single handed. J. J. McDonald had heard this story from one of Frank's buddies. He asked Frank to tell him about it, he did and said he was scared.

Sara Carter McDonald died at the close of the war. Her daughter Sallie married a Mr. Barber from Texas and was planning to take her mother with her, as the home had been ransacked of its furnishings, the slaves taken away, the provisions, cotton and stock of every description seized by the Yankees. The home was not burned. There were a few pieces of heavy furniture left. Sara McDonald had to abandon the home and she died before her daughter could take her to Texas.

This was the desolate land awaiting the returned soldiers.

William B. McDonald, the oldest son, took charge of his father's plantation to restore it to living conditions. He later bought each child's part and established a home of his own. Here William and Mary with their children, Masalette, Marcella, Ada, Annie, Rebecca, Julius and Charles lived.

There were a few faithful slaves who stayed on. The faithful few who stood out in the mind of the McDonalds were Antony, Willis, Dock, Phil, Anderson, Sam, Viney and Sylvia. They were the children of a faithful slave Peter who had belonged to John D. McDonald.

Reconstruction had to be lived through in extreme contrast to days they once knew. Those days were lived in a sunny happy land with refined, hospitable and generous people. A land in its prime. This home had known the brogue of a Scot as master and the dialect of faithful, loyal slaves. The black mammy was held in high esteem. The youngest daughter, Sally, lived like a princess with her silken gowns, jewels, admirers and slaves of her own. These days were followed by war days, seeing the same people crushed, tattered and starving. Death, desolation, burned towns, the wounded and dying were very real.

But, worse was the Negro and Carpetbag rule. The worst element of men sitting in high places, treading their betters in the dust.

"B"

Grandmother McDonald's supply of meat saved from a Yankee raid.

The slave Bob says "mist Mary", I know the Yankees are coming, let me take your meat from the smoke-house & hide it. Don't ask me where I hide it. I don't even want you to know. You can tell them you are depending on what's hanging in the smoke house to see you through. Let me talk to them "mist". I know what to say to them.

Mary McDonald thought it a good plan, because everyone was hearing of raids for provisions and were living in dread of the Yankees appearing. So the slave was told to go ahead.

Bob dug a hole or cave as large as a room. He placed shelves all around. He moved almost all of the meat & contents of the smoke-house, leaving only a few pieces hanging in the smoke-house.

The Yankees really did come to raid the place of provisions. Bob managed to be on hand & took his stand to talk to them. They asked him who lived here, he told them her name & ²said sh was there with her small children; and that her husband was away at war. When they inquired about food on the place, he said that all she had to go on, what you see hanging in the Smoke house.

When the Yankees looked inside them about the place. They asked Grandmother a few questions then passed on without carrying away any food.

The slave had driven the poultry & what stock they had into the cane breast where he knew they would never go.
And the meat was safe in the hedge hole, big as a room, that he had dug himself.

This hiding place stayed as it was for years. Jubilee had seen it himself and heard the story over and over again.

Note: When Papa had finished telling me about this he said that slave later killed a man - a Mr. McMillan - asked if he was related to Harry - He said, he was his grandfather.

I did not know of the gruesome part of it until you told of Mr. Pearson's story.

I've heard Papa speak of Sam Pearson many times. I think the Pearson home is still standing at Paulding. I wish the red brick

there might be some records
there - there was still there -

McDonald Family File #1

Alexander S. McDonald was born ^{CA} ~~in~~ 1806 the fifth child, ^{of} parents angus McDonald, Jr. and wife Catherine Buchanan McDonald. Alexander S. McDonald gives his birth place as South Carolina. Angus and Catherine McDonald acquired their homestead north of Laurel Hill, N. C. but they are buried north edge of Laurinburg, N. C. At present, 1985, we do not know where they lived in between. Maybe Angus got tired of his "inlaws". Most of this history of Alexander S. McDonald is by:

Charles A. McDonald, Jr.
1979 Tamarack St.
Westlake Village, Calif. 91361

From what has been told before, it is said that Alexander S. McDonald, was the 5th son of Angus McDonald and Catherine Buchanan of Laurel Hill, N. C. From what is to follow it will be seen that we can not prove that statement, even though family stories and circumstantial evidence give strong support to this theses, In my study of the family I have tried to be very careful to insist on documentation of relationships and I will not rest easy until I prove or disprove this claim. So far I prefer to say "The Jury is still out" on the case.

Still we have collected a lot of information on Alexander and his wife which I will procede to display for the record. Four most critical data sources are;

1. Two references to their marriage
2. Biographical and historical memoirs of Mississippi by good speed 1891
3. 1850 census Covington County, Miss.
4. Court records of the settlement of estate of Alexander S. McDonald. Other supportative evedence will also be provided.

First let me use the 1850 census data for Covington County, Miss., to establish the birth dates of Alexander S., Elizabeth and their Children. This record sheet for Alexander S. McDonald taken Sept. 2, 1850, is our only census record that clearly shows Alexander S., Elizabeth and all 7 children that we are sure of. I will return to below, but suffice it to say at this point of our story that it establishes the birth dates as follows;

Alexander S.	1806
Elizabeth	1807
John	1829
Alexander	1830
Samuel	1832
Neill	1835

Mary Ann	1839
Belinda	1841
Effy	1845

Recognize that any date would be off one year one way or another. This record shows that Alexander S. was born S. C. (Some later records of his children also state their father was a native of S. C.). This gives me a problem with his father being Angus although we don't know that the later did not live in S. C. for a time.

In April 1827, Alexander S. McDonald of South Carolina married Elizabeth McNair, daughter of Alexander McNair of Richmond County, N. C. two extracts from N. C. News papers of the time, support this fact:

McDonald, Alex of South Carolina to Elizabeth McNair April 3, Richmond County, N. C. May 1, 1827, from N. C. marriages and deaths 1826-1845 Broughton 3418 Leonard M in Richmond County -- on the 3 D Inst. Mr. Henry Leanard to Miss. Catherine McNair - and on the 19th [inst]. Mr. Alex S. McDonald of S. McNair RaNC 5 w Thu 10 May 1827 3:4 From abstracts of vital records from Raleigh, N. C., news papers 1820-1829 Neal

Fortunately, Elizabeth's father is mentioned in 2 volum set of biographical and historical memoirs of Miss. By Good Speed. 1891 - reference 10. The reason the family is mentioned at all is largely because of her brother, Judge John E. McNair, was a man of some importance as were his sons. This reference , an extract of which is shown here is critical to establish the McNair line:

The father

of our subject's father, Alexander McNair, was a native of Scotland, and came with his parents to North Carolina when he was three years old. The family located in that state, where Alexander was reared, and followed planting until his removal to Mississippi. He settled in Simpson county, where he died at the age of eighty-four years. He was a man of considerable prominence and took some part in politics. His wife was Miss Effie Little. She died in Simpson county, considerably advanced in life, some years after her husband. To them were born eleven children, seven of whom married and had families, and two of whom are yet living. The latter are Mrs. Jane Graves and Mrs. Isabelle Stubbs, the first mentioned of whom lived in San Antonio, Tex., and the latter in Louisiana. Those deceased are as follows: Mrs. Katy Leonard, who died in Covington county, Miss.; Rodrick, who married in Mississippi and removed to Texas, and there died, leaving a large family; Cornelius died in South Carolina, unmarried; Diana, who died unmarried, in Covington county, Miss.; Rachel, who died in Covington county; Mary, who died unmarried in Simpson county, Miss.; Mrs. Betsey McDonald died in Covington county, leaving a large family; and Mrs. Belinda Fullenweider, who died in Texas, also leaving a large family. John E. McNair came to Mississippi when a young man.

From this reference, census data and abstracts of Good Speed I have constructed the family sheet for Alexander McNair and his wife, Effie Little. Reference 12, attempts to plot all known census data of the Alex McNair family beginning in 1800 in Richmond County, N. C. (no record in 1790 census). As noted, in 1840 the family is in Simpson County, Miss., as is the case in 1850. I have not found the family in 1860 Census, if one takes the Goodspeed reference (reference 1) literally it has Alexander McNair dying at age 84. But he was 71 in 1850 census which says he was born in Scotland in 1777 (other information claim 1778). Goodspeed together with the 1771 birth date, says he died in 1855, however the 1778 birth would call for his death in 1862, a record in 1860 would be most helpful.

Elizabeth McNair's mother, Effie Little was 75 in the 1850 census and thus would be born in 1775, however other data says 1783. The Goodspeed reference (10) states she lived some years after Alexander McNair's death (1855-1862). We will have to hope a good film 1860 is available soon to help sort this out. We can not prove it but it is interesting to speculate that Alexander Little and Effie Little of Robson County, N. C. and possibly later in Miss. might just be the parents of our Effie Little McNair. There is also a son, Duncan Little who shows up in both places. What is the relationship, if any? More research is clearly called for to workout the "Little" line.

Returning to Alexander S. McDonald and Elizabeth McNair, they were born 1806 and 1807 respectively with Alexander from S. C. and Elizabeth from N. C. The Marriage notice gives some clear indication of a S. C. home originally as do the birth place listings of S. C. for their first two sons in 1850 census below. The 1840 census record, assuming the 1850 error in surname (McDaniel for McDonald) was made here also, we have;

		Males				Females
		0-5	10-15	15-20	20-30	15-20	20-30
Alex S. McDaniel		2	1	1	1	1	1

If this is Alexander S. and Elizabeth they have in addition to their first two sons, John born 1829 and Alexander J. born 1830. Two young men and an extra young girl. These later three could be sisters and brother of Alexander S. and Elizabeth or other relations.

Family tradition has Alexander S. and Elizabeth in Robson County N. C. with their third son, Samuel D. born 1832, shortly after his birth it is said that the family left for Mississippi. Thanks to the incredible work of Archie Pickering, we know where Alexander S. Lived in Simpson County. Reference 13 is my plat of McNair & Alexander S. McDonald property acquisitions from 1818 through 1835, the McNairs, starting with Reuben (a brother of Alexander McNair?) came first in 1818 to Covington County, followed by John McNair in 1824 (another brother?) Alexander McNair and Alexander S. McDonald both acquired land in 1836 in Simpson County, Miss. Note how close together these properties are. John E. McNair gets property next to Alexander McNair in 1853 by which time Alexander S. McDonald seems to have moved to Covington County. John E. McNair sold Alexander S. McDonald 430 acres near Alexander S. Brothers, Hugh, William, and Samuel B. and his sister Catherine in Covington County, Miss.

From the data in reference 13, one suspects that Alexander S. and family moved with his inlaws from N. C. to Miss. The 1840 census data for Simpson County seems to bear this out as follows:

	Males				Females
	5-10	10-15	20-30	30-40	0-5	20-30	30-40
A. McDaniel	3	1	1	1	2	1	1

Again note the McDaniel vs McDonald (no wonder we had so much trouble finding the family all these years). In this same year in Covington County, Miss., Hugh, Neil William were listed as McDaniel. The family next to Alexander S. is John McNier vs Nair, while three doors away is Alexander McNair all in Simpson County.

The Clan McDonald

The Clan McDonald reckoned the oldest and most famous of the Scottish Clans, descends from Donald, grandson of Somerled, King of the Isles, in the 12th Century. The name Somerled is Norse, Somerledhi Mariner. He died in 1164, and was buried in Saddle Monastery leaving three sons Dugall, Reginald, and Angus.

The Southern Isles and a portion of Argull were thus divided among the sons of Somerled; Lorn, Mull and Jura to Dugall; Kintyre and the Islay to Reginald; Bute, with a part of Arron and the roughbounds from Ardnarnach to Glenelg, to Angus.

Reginald was succeeded by his son, Donald of Isla, from whom the Clan Donald takes its name. His son Angus Mor, Lord of the Isles was succeeded by Alexander, the eldest son, who with his issue were banished for opposing the Bruce. The next brother, Angus Og, Lord of the Isles, was father, of "Good John of Isla", who settled the succession of the son of his second marriage with princess Margaret. Uz Donald, Lord of the Isles, who fought Harlow 1411, and gained the Earldom of Ross. His son, Alexander, Earl of Ross, Lord of the Isles and Chief of the Mac Donald, had three sons; (1) John, Lord of the Isles, who resigned his honors to the King 1494, and whose grandson Angus, expired after a treasonable treaty with England 1545; (2) Clestine of Lochalsh, in favor of whose heir of line, Angus MacDonald of Glenngarry, the chiefship was restored, and with the title Lord Mac Donell and Aros, 1660 to "Heirmale of his body" which lapsed 1680; (3) Hugh of Sleate, in favour of whose descendant the name and representation of McDonald was restored by execution of the Barony of MacDonald 1727. His son was created Lord MacDonald 1776, whose great grand son, Ronald, 6th Lord, and Baron of MacDonald, Chief of MacDonald (and 22nd chief of Sleate until 1910, when the Sleate Baronetcy and representation was adjudged to his cousin), remained as "inheritor of the McDonald estate: Chief of the name. He was in 1947 succeeded by his grandson, Alexander McDonald, Revested in the Ancient undifferenced arms of McDonald, is now the MacDonald, hereditary chief of the MacDonalds. His seats are Armadale and Dunscaith Castle in Skye.

McDonald - Smith Family History

Our McDonald parents came over from Glasgow, Scotland, on the ship "Marry Boyd" or in Gaelic "Mairi Boyd". The time is uncertain, some records say between 1760-1765, however according to the tombstone records, the first son John, of the emigrant parents was born in Argyleshire, Scotland, February 1773. The next son Daniel, was born in Moore County, North Carolina in 1780. Therefore it is not definitely known when they arrived or where they first settled, possibly on the southern border of Moore County, North Carolina, which was part of Cumberland County at the time of the first census of North Carolina in 1790. We find in that census in Fayette District, Cumberland County a John McDonald who had one free white male in his household over 16 years of age, three white males under 16 years of age and two females.

Unless one had the good fortune to run across a family Bible or extensive correspondence among members of the early McDonald families, any reliable information is almost impossible to secure. According to the land records of Fayetteville, North Carolina, John and Flora McDonald conveyed land in 1772 and there are several other conveyances which run until about 1800. It is most difficult to ascertain which John McDonald was our ancestor since there are ten John McDonalds indexed in that county. The Moore County deeds and most court records were destroyed by fire in 1884. I have found only one indication that the emigrant was named John McDonald. John Daniel McDonald, who recently passed away in Oklahoma City, was named for his grandfather Daniel and his great great grandfather John.

The destination of the MacDonalds of Skye was the "Cape Fear Valley of North Carolina". More than 4,000 emigrants from Skye sailed for America from 1769-1773. "They declared the oppressions of their land lords are such they can no longer submit to them." Inducements were held out to the Highlanders who left their home after the battle of Cullodan, to settle in South Carolina. The "High Hills of Santee" in what's now Sumter County, was designed for them, the exiles however, baffled by contrary winds were driven into the Cape Fear region, and a part crossed and settled higher up in North Carolina.

The McDonalds by 1775 were so numerous in Cumberland County as to be called the "Clan Donald" and the insurrection of February 1776 is still known as the "Insurrection of the Clan MacDonald". Most of the McDonalds were with the British and were taken prisoner of war, after the battle of Moore's Creek Bridge, Cumberland County, North Carolina, and sent to Philadelphia prison during the remainder of the war. Among the list was a Colonel Allen McDonald, Major Alexander McDonald, Captain John McDonald, Captain James McDonald, Captain Angus McDonald, Kenneth McDonald Aid de Camp to General McDonald. On coming to America the Highlanders who arrived after the battle of Culloden had to sign an oath of allegiance to the King of England, and were not permitted to take up arms against her.

In the index of land surveys of South Carolina, in the South Carolina Archives Department, Columbia, South Carolina, we find a John McDonald having a survey of 432 acres of land in 1802, in the Chesterfield District. This plot of land was acquired directly from the State consequently having been in the State records they were not destroyed in 1865 when all the earlier records of Chesterfield County were burned in the civil war.

The name of John's wife is unknown. From among the long list of descendants named Catherine, Christianna and Margaret, I would surmise it was one of the three. Of course there was a long line named for Lady Margaret McDonald of Scotland for many generations.

This settlement was also called Scotland, and when the civil war came, a company of one hundred men was organized, they were known as the Scotland Guard. They were among the first to be called out and many of them never came back.

Vi. Catherine (Katie) McDonald, married John McMillan.

3. James McDonald, third son of emigrant John. I have no record.

4. Murdock McDonald, born in North Carolina, probably Fayette District, Moore County, between 1786-1790. He married Effie Douglas, probably 1818. She was born in North Carolina, near the Pee Dee River. She had two brothers Duncan and Daniel. They descended from the line of old Scotlik Dukes named Douglas. It is thought she was a distant relative of Stephen A. Douglas.

Murdock was living in South Carolina perhaps Cheraw when he and Effie married. According to the written records left in the Smith family, Murdock went to the fair over in North Carolina, when he met Effie Douglas. He squired her around at the fair and fell in love with her. He went back home and tried to go on with his work, but he could think of nothing but the girl he loved over in North Carolina. So he dropped everything and went back over and told her what he had come for. She told him to go back home and she would let him know. He said "I won't go home until I get my answer". They were married, settled in Cheraw, South Carolina, and there were six children; Mary and Margaret (who died when small) Daniel, Catherine (Kate), Christianna and Murdock James.

Murdocks older brother John had moved to Neshoba County, Mississippi, in the 1820's. Probably in the late 1820's Murdock and his family along with his brother Daniel and family started to Mississippi, but stopped on the Black Warrior River in Western Alabama to make a crop. They planned when their crop was harvested to go on to Neshoba County, Mississippi, but Murdock died. I have two versions of his death, one he was crossing the swollen Black Warrior River when his horse threw him and he drowned, the other that he took sick and died.

His wife Effie moved back to Cheraw, South Carolina accompanied by her brother, Duncan Douglas and her brother-in-law, James McDonald who came out to move her and the children back to South Carolina. Daniel McDonald moved on to Neshoba, Mississippi.

John and his wife had five children, John, Daniel, James, Murdock and Christianna.

1. John McDonald, born in Argyleshire, Scotland, February 1773, married Margaret McDougal, daughter of Arch McDougal. She was born in Robeson County, North Carolina, August 20, 1780. They were married August 22, 1802. John died March 14, 1865, and Margaret died December 9, 1857; both are buried at Philadelphia, Mississippi, in the Old Scotland Cemetery or later called "The Church A Caroline". This cemetery was built by the early McDonald families.

John's Last Will and Testament is recorded in Will Book A, page 78, in Neshoba County, Mississippi.

John and Margaret (McDougal) McDonald's Children were:

- a. Neill McDonald, born September 18, 1803; died June 7, 1852.
 - i. Neill A. McDonald
- b. Jane McDonald, born July 28, 1805; died October 8, 1855; married? Parkers. There were children mentioned in her fathers will but I do not know the names.

- h. Margaret McDonald, born September 15, 1820; married William McKay; died February 7, 1902.

Elizabeth Ann McKay.

2. Daniel McDonald, Sr., born in Moore County, North Carolina 1780. It is thought he married Flora Douglas, daughter of Daniel and Effy Douglas. She was born in Richmond County, North Carolina, 1781, married in 1802; died in 1850. Daniel died on September 20, 1862. Both are buried at "The Church A Caroline" near Philadelphia, Mississippi.

a. Daniel McDonald (Reverend), born March 20, 1805, in Chesterfield, South Carolina, married E. C. ? who was born May 6, 1818; died August 6, 1899. Daniel died December 5, 1884; both are buried in "The Church A Caroline" near Philadelphia, Mississippi.

Reverend Daniel McDonald joined the South Carolina Methodist Conference in 1828 and in 1830 was transferred to the Georgia Conference, when it was set off as a separate conference from South Carolina.

b. James McDonald

c. Hugh McDonald, born February 13, 1813; married Eliza A. McNair in December 1838. Hugh died June 12, 1894. Hugh migrated to near Philadelphia, Mississippi, and established what was known as Laurel Hill about 1830. He came as a trader among the Indians, later built a store and post office and in his later years was a money lender or banker for the area. He accumulated quite a nice fortune.

It is recorded that he had so much land and negro slaves that he had to have an overseer--his Aunt Effie (McDonald) Smith told him that the trouble with him was that the more he got the more he wanted. He said, "No, the more I get the more I need."

Later Effie Douglas McDonald married Malcolm Smith. To this union four sons were born. John Andres, Alexander Joseph, Peter A. and Dunkin Malcomb. They were half brother of my great grandfather.

Effie Douglas McDonald Smith, was a Presbyterian also all the older McDonalds, but Malcolm Smith was a Methodist and Effie reared her family Methodist. Three sons, Daniel, Murdock and Alexander Joseph were Methodist Ministers.

In a letter written by Rev. Alexander Joseph Smith to his brother Rev. Daniel McDonald from Carrollton, Mississippi, June 11, 1866, appears the following passage; "Daniel in all probability we shall not have a pious, devoted mother to pray much longer for us, and the remarkable success of several years of your ministry, and the small measure of success I have had may have been due very much under God's blessings to her prayers".

- a. Mary McDonald (died while small)
- b. Margaret McDonald (died while small)
- c. Daniel, the eldest son was born in Chesterfield District, Cheraw, South Carolina, near Chesterfield; on April 26, 1819. He was a Methodist minister, "circuit rider" (according to his diary kept from 1845-1851) he began preaching in 1845 and each text for his sermons for this period is recorded in this diary, a possession of my uncle G. D. McCoy.

Daniel married Margaret Cumpsty about 1847, she was born September 10, 1822 the daughter of William and Margaret Cumpsty. When she was five years old they sailed from Manchester, England and were on the Atlantic for 7 weeks in 1827, settling in Boston, Massachusetts. Margaret received her education in Boston. She moved to South Carolina on a boat from Boston when a young lady and attended some college, where she was distinguished as the first woman to receive a teachers certificate south of the Mason and Dixon line.

Margaret taught school in South Carolina and met Daniel who already was a minister, and they were married in 1847.

Daniel preached at Waccamaw River Road, Conway Borough, Dotham, Pleasant, Pleasantview Church, Pinelog and Little River Camp Ground, McDonalds Chapel, N.C., Burk Wesley Chapel, N.C., Rockey Springs, N.C., Morgantown, Tisga, Shiloh, Monroe, Taylorsville, Newton, Salisbury, Chesterfield, Concord Church, Barwell Church, Bethel, Salem, Landcaster, New Hope, and many others in South Carolina.

Daniel transferred to the Mississippi Conference in 1855, and preached in Neshoba County, and later in Fulton County, Arkansas.

Death of "Uncle Sam" McDonald

(The following was taken from the files of The Collins Commercial of May 28, 1915, and was written by Bruce Fanzandt, of D'Lo, and is reproduced by request of the family.)

Last Sunday, May 24, 1915, "Uncle Sam" McDonald died at his home three miles southwest of Collins. He had been confined to his bed fourteen weeks, and notwithstanding the efforts of skilled physicians and loved ones, he quietly passed away. The deceased was 93 years of age and had been a resident of this county about fifty years.

"Uncle Sam" has been a member of the Presbyterian church since a young man and has always stood up for God and spoke the right thing for the coming generation, and his death is mourned by the people of the entire county.

The writer has had the pleasure of knowing the deceased for more than 10 years and on many occasions has heard him speak of the early days of his life and the county, and when we think for a moment of a man of his age his life is a great history. In speaking of his ancestors he told me they came to this country from Scotland, Alex McNair with his wife and family, came to this country, bringing with them a camping outfit consisting of a cross-cut saw, pot hanger, etc., and established a home in what was then a new land. The pot hangers are now in the home of the deceased, and one of the McNairs near Brookhaven has the saw.

In this family was a pretty young girl, Bettie, who was wooed and won by Mr. Alex McDonald, and they settled in Robertson County, North Carolina, and on October 24, 1822, was born to them the deceased, Sam McDonald. At the age of 9 months his parents with other families moved to this section of the bountry, coming through in ox wagons, and the little colony made their first stop in this state in Simpson County somewhere near Jaynesville, where they lived for a short time and then moved to Covington County, settling on Dry Creek, where they resided on a farm until he was 36 years of age.

On December 23, 1868, he was married to Miss Louisa Southwood, the daughter of a prominent New York family, who was born April 23, 1840, she being 18 years his junior.

At the outbreak of the war in 1861 he enlisted as a calvaryman in Capt. V.L. Terrell's company from Covington County and followed the flag four long years, fighting through some of the bloodiest battles of the war. At the close of the war he returned to his home in this county on the farm where he lived until he died.

Covington county was established in 1819, and "Uncle Sam" coming here a few years later placed him in a position to know many of the early settlers and he often spoke of the following old families: Harris, Reed, McAfee, Shipp, Hatten, Aaron, Lowe, Folk, Harper, McCollum, Buchanan, McNair, McLaurin, Watts, Jaynes, Rogers, Duckworth, Byrd and Hall.

He has often told the story of how the old timers would hold court at old Moscos under the big magnolia tree that now stands near Speed postoffice in the eastern part of the county. He said they held court in the open air as they had no house. A whipping stake was erected and when a man was convicted for a crime the sheriff put him to the stake and the judge numbered the licks that he received. If the docket was unusually large two days were required for court, otherwise one day was necessary.

Great changes have been wrought since "Uncle Sam" was a boy. There were no steam engines or railroads in America. He spent three months and three days in Christmases and more than 4836 days in Sunday.

He is survived by a devoted wife, one sister, eight children, forty-two grand-children and a host of life-long friends.

The interment was in the home cemetery where he was buried with Masonic honors, only 300 yards from where he lived twenty-six years.

Introduction

This paper is intended to document the current information that I possess.

on Alexander S. McDonald and Elizabeth McNeir, one set of my paternal - great great grandparents. The reason for selecting this couple as my starting point is that Alexander S.^{McDonald} represents the furthest back that I can document my McDonald lineage although as will be seen below, there is family history evidence for the Scottish emigrant Angus McDonald being the father of Alexander S. My friend Archie Pickering of Collins, Miss (a ^{great} grandson of William McDonald, known to be a son of Angus McDonald) is writing up the McDonald history: ^{to finish the manuscript with his wife's help} This account is only intended to provide an elaboration on my particular branch.

Angus McDonald and Catherine Buchanan

I do not want to interfere with Archie's story but my own must start with Angus McDonald and Catherine Buchanan who are said to be the parents of Alexander S. McDonald. Family history has Angus McDonald born in 1869 on the Isle of Skye, in the New Hebrides, Scotland. He is said to have come to America in ¹⁸⁸⁵ ~~1885~~ at the age of 16 and settled in North Carolina. We do not know the circumstances of this emigration; not even if he was with his parents, brothers, sisters or whom. That there was a major exodus from Scotland to North Carolina is well known. ^{and many of them were McDonalds. In fact,} (many others went to South Carolina) in the first US Census (1790) there were 61 McDonald families in North Carolina including 3 Alexander, 3 Angus, 4 Hugh, 13 John and 2 William. The McDonalds are heavily concentrated in 4 counties, namely Richmond, Robeson, Cumberland and Moore - which touch each other. One wonders just how many of them. McDonalds were related to each other. ~~that is to say~~, did some of ~~the~~ ^{by name} ~~the~~ ^{and} other members of the family follow or was there a mass migration which occurred all at one time? This, after all, was immediately following the Revolutionary War (ended ~1781) and England got rid of their non-trader makers about that time. Class Donald was high on the list, I rather suspect.

In the 1790 census which lists only head of household ^{by name} and others by sex and age groups, there are several in the Fayette District ^{who could} qualify (it is in both Richmond and Robeson counties) with a young man of 20 or 21 as Angus would have been at that time. In fact, in the Richmond Co. part ^{of Fayette District} there is an Angus McDonald with 2 males over 16, 1 male less than 16 and 3 females. In the Robeson Co. part of the District is another Angus McDonald with 2 males over 16, and 1 female. Of course, neither head of household is likely to be our Angus but he could be the son of that person. Other households also been possible. There just isn't enough information to sort it out from this data alone. (and Angus) there are several records of land purchased by Anguish McDonald (first in 1794) during the last decade in the 18th century. Archie will undoubtedly document his fine work in this area in his story.

Unfortunately the 1800 federal census film is very poor, however, ~~Richmond County but there is one in Cumberland Co as there had been in 1790~~
~~However, Archie again will show us a 2nd land record in 1800 to Angus~~

~~McDonald might be the correct name of him.~~
On this federal census,
I have found 3 possible Angus McDonalds in Richmond County, one of whom has no family. Either of the others could be ours! Archie shows a land record for 1800 but his story is for him to tell! -

The 1810 federal census film is beautiful, no doubts here.
The fit isn't great, we have one too many boys and 3 too few girls in Idell's list. That's part of the breaks of genealogy!

For the 1820 census, we get poor film again. 2 Angus McDonald families, one of whom I favor because of ^{other} proximity of family names. The fit is rather poor to Idell's list. Maybe we lost some children on the way. It happened very often in those days. The boys could fit assuming some had left home but we are desperately short on girls in Idell's list. I'll bet people just didn't feel it was as important to record them; they just got married and left home anyway. As we will see below there were at least 2 girls we didn't know about.

1830 continues the pattern as does 1840 except the "lady of the house" drops out in that census causing me to feel that Catherine had died in the decade 1830-1840. See below.

1850 we have Angus McDonald and a 25 year old Alexander.
Angus is 75, therefore born in 1775 in Scotland! The only Alexander (as shown below)
we have about this age is my great grandfather Alexander J. McDonald (son) Alexander S. McDonald) born in 1830 (then 20 in 1850).

It's a long shot but the best I have at the time.

1860 shows Angus as 91 and born in Scotland, thus we get the 1769 used in the family history. One wonders if that birth year came from someone reading the census & tentatively, we have a reading of his tombstone which confirms it (see below).

All this census data is summarized in Reference 1. Assuming Angus is the oldest male and Catharine the oldest female in the census one gets the analysis in Reference 2. Angus fits rather well with his birth about 1769, but Catharine needs some adjusting from the tombstone readings quoted below (letter from Edith Higgins to Darlene M.D. II

Assignment:

Remarks:

Dear Mr. McDonald:

1/8/1962

I have received a letter from a descendant of Angus McDonald and wife Catharine Buchanan McDonald and she states that they are buried two miles from Laurinburg, N. C., on the Giles Leach farm. Tombstones read:

"In memory of Angus McDonald
Native of Isle of Skye, Scotland
Died Dec. 9, 1861, aged 92 years "

thus, born 1769

" In memory of Catherine, consort of Angus McDonald, died Sept. 25, 1856 aged 60 years. "

thus born 1796.

If you would like to write to this lady, she is: Mrs. E. L. Goodyear, Mullins, South Carolina. (She was Estalena McDonald, and descended from Angus through son John, through son Duncan, her father.)

Most sincerely,

She wants me to spend a couple of hours proving her own line, from John.

Edith Higgins

- This information has caused me a great deal of distress.
- She can't be born in 1796 and have children born starting in 1799. Further, it is inconsistent with the census data for Angus' wife Catherine as seen in References 1 and 2. I believe that Mrs Goodgear misread the tombstone for the year of death — 1836 is a better fit by far than 1856 (a very reasonable mistake when one tries to read old tombstones) ^{unfortunately} "Mrs. Goodgear died in 196?" and none of her family could help. Further, Archie's attempts to locate the graves on Gile Lead's farm, north west of Lumberville were unsuccessful as were mine own efforts with the current owner, Doris Lead Lawrence. Doris is a direct descendant of Angus Lead (who married our own Sarah Ann McDonald, daughter of Angus according to Shell's records - see below -) and his second wife ^{Jessette} ~~Jessette~~. - there is another cemetery on the property other than the large Lead cemetery but Doris and her brother believe it was only used for slaves.
 - there is another bit of information that appears to give a different location for the graves than that quoted above - Several years ago, Ruth ^{McDonald} Messinger Brown sent me the following extract from a family history for the Mc Laurin-Douglas family quoted in the Richmond County Wills - NC State Archives

(I do not know the origin of this extract from Ruth)

Mary Douglass McDonald is buried in an abandoned cemetery near Laurinburg, N.C., where two Douglasses are buried who are members of the family of Daniel Douglass of Richmond Co., N.C. Other McDonalds buried there are Angus and Catherine (Buchanan) McDonald (John's parents) and their son Alex and dau. Sarah Ann Leach.

This extract clearly states that Angus and Catherine as well as John's wife Mary Douglass, and their son Alexander and daughter Sarah Ann Leach are buried in the DOUGLASS CEMETARY (Daniel Douglass?) near Laurinburg, N.C. The Leach property has been in the family since 1800 so there can't be a confusion there. This report just doesn't agree with Mrs. Goodgeon. Could she have been mistaken? By the way, just who is this Alex, son of Angus? If Alexander is Angus son we have him buried in the Mt. Nair Cemetery in Simpson County, Miss in 1856 (per Idelle) - Note Sarah Ann turns up here which is good since she isn't listed in the Leach Cemetery for some strange reason. This Douglass Cemetery does not occur on the map and the location index for Scotland County, NC (contains that part of Richmond County we are concerned with) which Archie sent me. More research is clearly required on this issue.

William Buchanan

Before dealing with the children of Angus^{McDonald} and Catherine Buchanan, let us have a look at the date on Catherine herself - family story has it that Catherine is the daughter of William Buchanan of Scotland. In fact, we know a few things about him thanks to a genealogist^{named} William Bennett who worked for Archie in 1984. William Buchanan is listed in the 1790 US census for N.C. as well as 1800 and 1810. He is given 1820 as it should be since we have his will dated 29 Sept 1817. The main points of the will are as follows:

WILLIAM BUCHANAN WILL - DATED 29 SEPT 1817

1. BEQUEATH SOUL TO LORD JESUS CHRIST - DESIRE BODY TO BE DECENTLY BURIED.
2. TO JOHN BUCHANAN, MY OLDEST SON - ① 1/2 OF STILL AND ALL ARTICLES BELONGING TO STILLING
② 1/2 CROCKET SAW, ③ NEGRO GIRL - LEDY.
3. ^{Mc?} GILBERT MARY^V MILLAN AND MY DAUGHTER MARGARET M^{Mc}MILLAN - $20.
- 4. TO ANGUS M^{Mc}DONALD AND MY DAUGHTER CATHERINE M^{Mc}DONALD - $20
5. TO JOHN JOHNSON AND MARY JOHNSON, MY DAUGHTER - $20
6. TO MY DAUGHTER CHRISTIAN BUCHANAN - NEGRO BOY - JESSY
7. TO MY DAUGHTER ELIZABETH BUCHANAN - ① NEGRO BOY - WILL ② 2 COWS AND CALVES
③ MY BED, BED CLOSE, CHEST.
8. TO MY SON JAMES BUCHANAN - ① ALL MY LANDS AND TIMBERLANDS(?)

④ ALL THE REST OF THE MOVEABLE PROPERTY (NOT NAMED TO THE REST).

Note that no wife is mentioned which is in accord with the fact that she seems to disappear ^{from the census records} between 1800 and 1810. This census data is summarized in Reference 3.

Angus and Catherine ^(MY DAUGHTER) are mentioned ^{in the will.} they got $20!

William had a great deal of property starting with land acquired in 1790, most of which seems to have been left to his son James. From the 1800 census record for his son John (Leander Hill District, Richmond Co, VA) we have John 79 born in Scotland! There William Buchanan must have been married in Scotland \approx 1770 and we assume he was born there. Further, from the Poll tax he paid in 1796 we know he was born after 1746 since the tax was not charged to anyone over 50 years old according to Mr. Bennett. ^{the 1800 census has William born before 1755. as well as his wife} Thus we have his birth occurring between 1746 and 1755.

From the William Buchanan Will and some census data, we have constructed a family sheet Reference 4. As stated above, we have William born between 1746 and 1755 (let us assume \approx 1750) in Scotland. He married in Scotland, had one or more children there and came to America. It isn't clear just where Catherine was born, Scotland or N.E.? Since she was born \approx 1776 (the Revolutionary war started that year) it is even more confusing. All we have for "sure" is the possibility of Christiana being born in VA in 1784 if I have found the right one.

William died in 1817 (per his will) - thus he was in late 60's at the time (67 if he was born in 1750). William is my earliest ancestor thus far (1985) being my 7th generation back (counting myself as number 1). Further, his birth in ~1750 is the earliest birth yet found (1985). Unfortunately, I have not yet made a satisfactory tie to Angus and Catherine for Alexander S, thus these claims are tentative at best. As we will see below, the ties are family histories and circumstantial, such as connection or proximity to other family members, etc. ~~as a result of this~~ this is the most critical part of my genealogical research and any and all help will be greatly appreciated.

children of Angus McDonald and Catherine Buchanan

Returning to Angus McDonald and Catherine Buchanan we have seen that reasonable dates for their births and deaths are as follows:

Angus	b 1769	d 1861	age 92	(We assume they married about 1798.
Catherine	b 1776	d 1836	age 60

In between a number of children were born to them. Our first records were those obtained by Idelle Pickering during the 1960's. She had the ^{and their birth dates} children listed as follows:

HUGH	1799	ALEXANDER S.	?	JANIE	?
NELE	1800	SAMUEL B	1825	SON (NORMAN?)
JOHN	1801	CATHERINE	1828	SON
WILLIAM	1802	SARAH ANN	1836	UNKNOWN

We do not really know in detail where Idelle got this information. However, her research was extensive and she had access to certain members of the family who are no longer alive, eg. Clairborne, etc. One tends to go with the available information until better data becomes available so the following is intended to supplement Idelle's records and provide the reader with a few of my personal opinions about the children obtained from a composite of her information, that obtained by Archie since her work and my own research primarily with census data.

To start with, Reference 1 records the census data on Angus McDonald from 1790 through 1860. Note that only heads of household are listed by name prior to 1850 so we have only listings by sex and age group. To expand upon this information emphasizing the children, Reference 5 is provided including Idelle's listings for the children for comparison. Reference 6 contains my comments on Reference 5 done about a year ago before more recent data became available. The most significant problems were a need for more girls, especially early (1800-1815), and there is room for another son, hopefully, Alexander S. in the 1805-1810 timeframe. Idelle's list has always troubled me since it almost appears as though there were two different families put together with a gap in between and I have asked both Ruth and Archie if it might be possible that the later children, beginning with Sam B., could be grand children instead??

the most exciting new data to come to light was provided by Archie. He came up with the court fight among Angus children in the ^{1st quarter of} 1862 and continuing through 1864 in which:

John, Neil and Margaret of N.C.

challenged

Hugh and William of Miss and Mary of N.C.

PASCAGOULA LIBRARY

stating that the latter 3 had already gotten their share of their father's estate prior to his death. The records further state that these 6 are the only heirs and children living at the time (1st quarter 1862).

The first page of this record giving this information is shown in Reference 7.

Further, we have our first 4 boys plus 2 girls we hadn't heard of before, namely: Margaret, wife of John McQueen or McQueens and Mary McNeill presumably a widow. This new data warrants a full review of our available information on the children which I have begun and will outline below:

- Hugh McDaniel: apparently oldest son, born in 1795 ^{in N.C.} per Idelle. He appears to have been one of the first to leave N.C. (as early as 1825) for Miss. He married Catherine McCallum and they had 9 or more children beginning with Peter in 1830 and ending with Catherine in 1845. Hugh died in 1871 and is buried in Forest Co., Miss. We have census data on him as follows:

- 1840 -			Cory to Co Miss			Hugh McDaniel			(Common error as we shall see)
males			females			males			females
45	5-10	30-40	45	5-10	30-40	45	5-10	30-40	45	5-10	30-40
2	2	2	2	2	2	2	2	2	2	2	2

He seems to have another ^{adult} male living with him. It could be his brother Neil.

- 1850 - Covington Co. Miss :

Hugh McDonald	51	FARMER.	b NC
CATHERINE	42		"
PETER	19	"	MES S
Mary Jane	17		"
Austin	15	"	"
Clairborne	13		"
Christian	7
NEILE McDONALD	50	"	NC. Neil lives with Hugh!

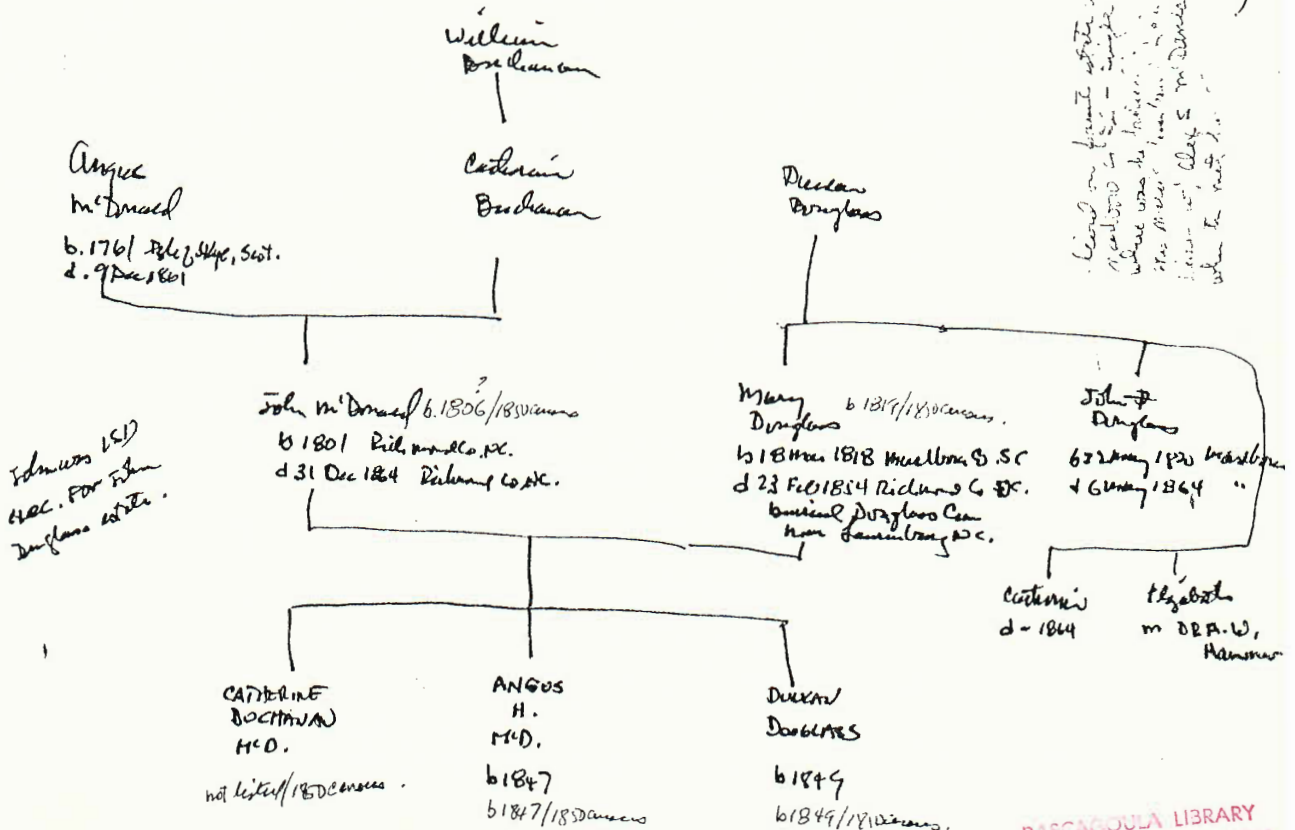

The family before was his brother William and the one 2 below is A.S. McDaniel (my great grandfather Alexander S. McDonald). This data sheet and a Xerox of the actual census record will be shown in the Alexander ^{S.} McDonald discussion below!

I did not find Hugh in the 1860 census. maybe he was in Perry County. Hugh is listed in the 1862 suit on his father's estate (it says he is in mississippi) and therefore is a bonafied son of Angus and Catherine.

• Neil McDonald : Second born son of Angus born in 1800 in NC per Belle. He was single and lived with his brother Hugh in mississippi for a time. He may be in the 1840 census with Hugh and is for sure in 1850 with Hugh in Simpson County. (there is a 32 (??) year old Neil living with Angus in Richmond Co NC in the 1860 census. Could this be our Neil with an incorrect age? He should be 60! maybe it is a grandchild, ?) He is also listed in the 1862 suit on Angus estate and is thus a bonafied son of Angus and Catherine.

• John McDonald : Third born son of Angus, born in 1801 in NC per Belle. He seems to not have moved to Mississippi with his brothers. Rather, he married Mary Douglass, daughter of Duncan Douglass of Marlboro Co, S.C. (across border from Richmond Co, NC). The Douglasses were neighbors of Alexander S. McDonald in 1830 if I have my census data correct. Reference B, a page which was discussed under the issue of first where ^{was} Angus and Catherine buried, pg —, is included

The daughter Catherine Buchanan McDonald will have been watching - I wonder if she might be the one in the list of Angus' children ⁽¹⁸²⁸⁾, i.e. a grand daughter, not a daughter. If so she must be from an earlier marriage of John since Mary Douglas was born in 1818. Their other children were born in 1847 and 1849 which seems OK. Samuel Hill District and 1849 which seems OK. ^{Savannah District}

Mary died in 1854 and is buried with Angus & Catherine ~~in the~~ Douglas's

Cemetery near Laurinburg NC per the archives extract Reference 8.

John McDonald is listed in the 1862 suit over Angus estate and is another benefited son of Angus and Catherine. In fact, he was executor of his father's estate as well as that of Mary Douglas brother Duncan Douglas. John died in late 1864 in Richmond Co, NC near Laurinburg and may also be buried in the Douglas cemetery (per Archie).

- William McDonald: the fourth son of Angus and Catherine McDonald was named William.

He was born in NC in 1802 per Idelle. William was another who departed for Mississippi in the 1820-1830 time frame. He married Margaret McLeod and they had at least 7 children beginning with Mary in 1827 in Crumpton Co, Miss and ending with Hanson in 1838 ^{in Crumpton Co, Miss} (Could this be the son - Hanson? in Idelle's list?)

Archie Pickering is a great grandson of William via the 2nd son Archibald born in 1829. Archie's Archie's spelling.

1 mother was Ann Katherine McDonald daughter of Archibald and Edith Loflin.

Ann Katherine married Thomas Jefferson Pickering and Archie is their son.

We have the following census data on William McDonald:

We have not found William in the 1870 census data. Archie says he died after 1880.

William is also listed in the 1862 list over Angus Eobbs and then again is a brother-in-law of Angus and Catherine McDonald.

Alexander S. McDonald: according to Belle's records, the fifth son of Angus McDonald and Catherine Buchanan was Alexander S. She did not have a birth date listed for him.

Since he is my great-great grandfather and since he and his wife Elizabeth McRae are the principle reason for this paper, I will ~~forget~~ ^{defer} a detailed discussion of Alexander until a later part of this account.

S. ~~at this time~~. Suffice it to say he was born ^{about} 1806 in South Carolina, was a resident of S.C. at the time of his marriage in 1827, had 2 sons born in S.C., is the father of many of the Cowington Co, Miss^a families, including Sam D. of Collins, Miss^a who was his son. He died in 1836 and is buried in the Old McRae Cemetery in Simpson Co, Miss. per Belle

Unfortunately, all information connecting Alexander S. to Angus and Catherine is family history plus such circumstantial items as proximity to various family members. This seems incredible to me since it is "well known" in Collins, Miss that "he is a son of Angus". Something more than the information currently available will be required to ^{officially} tie this one together, especially in view of certain problems which ^{later in} will be discussed in this report.

Since Alexander S. died in 1836, it is reasonable that he does not occur in the list among Angus heirs in 1862, and of course he is not mentioned. It is most unfortunate that grand children were not mentioned either, since Alexander S' 7 children might have given us a clue. For now, this will remain a mystery - The next chapter will treat Alexander S. McDonald and Elizabeth McRae in some detail, especially my own paternal line, namely his 2nd son, Alexander J. McDonald ^{who was} my great grandfather.

Samuel B. McDonald: He has Sam B. McDonald listed as the 6th son of Angus and Catherine McDonald and his records say he was born in 1825 in South Carolina. Not a great deal is known about this man and there is some chance that some confusion has occurred between him and Samuel D. McDonald, Alexander S. McDonald's 3rd son, who as will be shown later was born in 1832.

He has Sam B. born in South Carolina in 1825, marrying Margaret..... of North Carolina and being the parents of 6 children starting with Alexander in 1832 and ending with Malcolm in 1868 all born in South Carolina.

Although it is poor form, my reading of the 1860 census has it as follows:

1860 COVINGTON CO. Miss.

S.B. McDonald	33	FARMING	S.C.
MARG....	33		Miss
Alex	8
Francis	6
Elizabeth	5

this is the only ~~known~~ record I have for Sam B. McDonald and family and is interesting in that it lists a James B. McDonald who is not in Idelle's records. He must have died early. Incidentally, 4 families later on the same page is Alexander S.' widow Elizabeth and several of her children (next door to Sam D. McDonald!).

Idelle's data does not show a place or year of Sam B.'s death. His late birth has always troubled me. I wondered if he might be a 2nd family or even a grandson of Angus McDonald. The fact that he was having children after 1862 but is not mentioned in the court fight among Angus' heirs shows he is not a son! We need to rethink this one carefully.

Catherine McDonald - Catherine was born in 1828 according to Idelle's list and is the first daughter mentioned for Angus and Catherine McDonald. Idelle's data shows that a country inscription says she was born in Lenoir County NC, married Daniel Angus McGilvray^(in NC or Miss?) went to Miss and had 8 children beginning with Angus in 1845 and ending with Margaret in 1860. There was a son named Alexander born in 1856. Catherine died in 1862 and is buried in Forest Co, Miss.

GENEALOGY COLLECTION
DO NOT CIRCULATE

Again her late birth causes me some problem. I can wonder if she could possibly be the Catherine Buchanan McDonald, daughter of John McDonald, Angus' 3rd son, ie a granddaughter of Angus if she is John's daughter, ^{instead of his daughter.}

she probably isn't by him. wife, Mary Douglas, who was born in 1818. Maybe Catharine was a child by an earlier marriage. Note that there was no date listed for her in Reference 8, not does she occur in the 1850 census for John and Mary as pg 13.

It is to be noted that Catharine does not occur in the suit by Angus' heirs. Idelle has her death in 1862 but this court case started in the first quarter of 1862 so the odds are that she was alive at the time it started. Thus this absence of her name further complicates the question of whether or not she was a daughter of Angus and Catharine. Since we don't have a son named for Angus, maybe there wasn't a daughter named for Catharine. We just don't know, but I'm inclined to believe she isn't their daughter.

Sarah Ann McDonald - Idelle lists Sarah Ann, b in 1836 as a daughter of Angus and Catharine McDonald. Again her very late birth causes me to have a serious suspicion that she isn't a daughter but possibly a granddaughter to Angus. Banks, if my "interpretation" of Catharine Buchanan McDonald's tomb stone is correct, she died Sept 25, 1886 at the age of 60. While not impossible, it seems rather unlikely she was still bearing children.

A more serious problem with Sarah Ann is that she is said to have married Angus Leach. But, from the Leach side, we have learned that he married Jennette McMillan and had a child by her, namely John Alexander Leach, in 1848. It seems unlikely that he could have married Sarah Ann, born in 1836, and married Jennette in May 1847. One wonders if the 1836 for Sarah Ann could be her death date instead of birth (would that we need more girls looking). Child for Angus Leach to add desc.

Sarah Ann Leach is listed as being buried with her parents in the Douglass Cemetery, p. 86. She is not listed in the Leach Cemetery list. She is not included in the list of Angus McDonald heirs in the 1862 list. If she is a daughter, I guess she was born much ^{and/or} sooner ~~is~~ is not alive in 1862. Again we don't know?

Janice McDonald - the last child in Shelle's list ^{of children of Angus & Catherine McD.} is Janice McDonald.

The only date listed is that she married a man named McGilroy, the same last name as the husband of Catherine McDonald above. Were they possibly brothers? The lack of information again causes us to question the relationship. Janice is a common name and occurs several times ^{check this} among the grandchildren. Since she isn't in the 1862 list of Angus children, she either isn't a daughter or wasn't alive then.

Here ends Shelle's list except for several subnotes. However, the Court fight among Angus's children provided us with the names of 2 girls whom we

two daughters in NC wedn't encountered before; namely Mary (McDonald) McNeil and Margaret (McDonald) McQueen wife of John McQueen or McQueen. ^{My mother had several before} ^{is a mystery but note that needs} seems to have moved to Mississippi

At Archie's request, I have searched the census records for Richmond County, NC for 1850 and 1860 with the following results:

Mary McDonald - census data: ^{there are 3 Mary McNeils but I have eliminated the other 2}
^{on shaking hands. The one drawn for family name is} ^{in the Williamson District of Richmond Co, NC.}

there is also a Mary McNeil listed as a domestic (43? years old) in the 1860 census but the film is poor. Of the 1850 data is one Mary, (look at the family name for her children) she was born in 1810 (we can use a girl then). Also she appears to be a widow which checks with the census data. Since she is listed as a child of Angus, we have no choice except to add her to the list of children of Angus and Catherine - We may have the wrong Mary McNeil

Margaret McDonald - the census data on this one is better since she has a husband named John and occurs in both 1850 and 1860 in the Samuel Hill District of

From the 1850 census Mary was born in 1815 while the poor file from 1860 seems to say 1817. Let's use the 1815 date for now. Since Margaret is in the list for the Court fight in 1862, she also definitely goes on the list of children for Angus and Catharine McDonald.

Why Mary and Margaret are left out of Idelle's list is a puzzle but we can no longer ignore them. In fact we welcome the addition of these two daughters and, I'd like to get one or two more for the early period to help with our census data in References 1 and 5.

With the new found confidence, I have made a new family sheet for Angus McDonald and Catharine Buchanan, Reference 9. The Court fight of 1862 gives us 6 children present and it definitely says no others were then at that time. In addition, Alexander S. has a strong the through family story & circumstantial evidence which there are problems with Sam B (he isn't a son), Catharine (don't call if she just missed being in suit which must have taken time to prepare), Sarah Ann (birth or death in 1836 ??) and James (who was she?). Of course, some of them and even others might have died prior to the 1862 date!

Alexander S. McDonald and Elizabeth McNeir

Now what has been ^{told} ~~said~~ before, it is ~~said~~ that Alexander S. McDonald is ~~said to be~~ ^{was} the 5th son of Angus McDonald and Catherine Buchanan of Saucierburg, N.C. From what is to follow it will be seen that we can not prove that statement, even though family story and circumstantial evidence gives strong support to this thesis. In my study of the family I have tried to be very careful to insist on documentation of relationships and I will not rest easy until I prove or disprove this claim. So far, I prefer to say that the jury is still out on the case.

Still, we have collected a lot of information on Alexander and his wife which I will proceed to display for the reader. Four most critical data sources are ① two references to their ~~marriage~~ ^{by marriage} ② Biographical and Historical ^{and} ~~Memories of~~ ^{Memories of} Mississippi (1891) ③ 1850 census for Covington Co, Miss. ④ Court records of ^{the} settlement of Alexander S. McDonald's estate. Other supportive information will also be provided.

First let me use the 1850 census data for Covington Co Miss to establish the birth dates for Alexander S., Elizabeth and ^{their children} ~~this record~~ ^{dict by Alexander S.} taken 2 Sept 1850 is our only census record that "clearly" shows Alexander S., Elizabeth and all 7 children ^{that} we are aware of. I will return to it below, but affix it to say at this point, our story that it "establishes" the birth dates as follows:

Alexander S.	1806
Elizabeth	1807
John	1829
Alexander	1830
Samuel	1832
Reile	1835
Mary Ann	1839
Beldrida	1841
Eliza	1845

Recognize that any date would be off one year one way or another. This record shows that Alexander S. was born in SC (some later records for his children ^{also} state their father was a native of SC). This point gives me a problem with ^{his father being} Angus ^{the father} although we don't know that he didn't live in SC. from time to time.

^{April} In 1827, Alexander S. McDonald of South Carolina married Elizabeth McNair, daughter, Alexander McNair of Beaufort Co, N.C. Two extracts from N.C. newspapers of the time support this fact:

Alexander McNair and Effie Little

Intensely, Elizabeth's father is mentioned in the 2 vol. set on Biographies and Historical Memories of Misses by Goodspeed 1871. ^{Reference 10} the reason the family is mentioned at all is largely because her brother, Judge John E. McNair, was a man of some importance among his sons. This reference on extract of which is down here, is critical to establish the McNair line:

The father of our subject's father, Alexander McNair, was a native of Scotland, and came with his parents to North Carolina when he was three years old. The family located in that state, where Alexander was reared, and followed planting until his removal to Mississippi. He settled in Simpson county, where he died at the age of eighty-four years. He was a man of considerable prominence and took some part in politics. His wife was Miss Effie Little. She died in Simpson county, considerably advanced in life, some years after her husband. To them were born eleven children, seven of whom married and had families, and two of whom are yet living. The latter are Mrs. Jane Graves and Mrs. Isabelle Stubbs, the first mentioned of whom lived in San Antonio, Tex., and the latter in Louisiana. Those deceased are as follows: Mrs. Katy Leonard, who died in Covington county, Miss.; Rodrick, who married in Mississippi and removed to Texas, and there died, leaving a large family; Cornelius died in South Carolina, unmarried; Diana, who died unmarried, in Covington county, Miss.; Rachel, who died in Covington county; Mary, who died unmarried in Simpson county, Miss.; Mrs. Betsey McDonald died in Covington county, leaving a large family; and Mrs. Belinda Fullenweider, who died in Texas, also leaving a large family. John E. McNair came to Mississippi when a young man.

From this reference, census data and abstracts of Goodspeed, I have constructed the family sheet for Alexander McNair and his wife Effie Little. Reference 12 attempts to plot all known census data for the Alex McNair family beginning in 1800 in Richmond Co, N.C. (No records in 1750 census), as noted, in 1840 the family is in Simpson Co, Miss as is the case in 1850. I have not found the family in 1860 census. If one takes the Goodspeed reference (Ref. 11) literally, it has Alexander dying at age 84. But he was 71 in 1850 census which says he was born in Scotland in 1771 (other info. claims 1778). Goodspeed together with the 1771 birth date, says he died in 1855. However, the 1778 birth date ^{would call for his death in 1862} & record in 1860 would be most helpful.

Elizabeth Mc'Nair's mother, Effie Little, was 75 in the 1850 census ^{and thus} would be born in 1775. However, other data says 1783. The Goodspeed reference (10) states she lived some years after Alexander Mc'Nairs death (1855 → 1862). We will have to hope a good file for 1860 is available soon to help sort this out. We can not prove it but it is interesting to speculate that Alexander Little and Effie Little of Robinson Co NC and possibly later in Miss might just be the parents of our Effie Little. There is also a "son", Duncan Little who shows up in both places. What is the relationship, if any?? More research is clearly called for to work out the "Little" line.

Returning to Alexander S. McDonald and Elizabeth Mc'Nair, they were born 1806 and 1807 respectively with Alexander from SC and Elizabeth from NC. The marriage notice gives some clear evidence of a SC home originally as do the birth place listings of SC for their first two sons in the 1850 census below. ^{the 1840} census record, assuming the 1850 error in surname (Mc'Daniel for Mc'Donald) was made here also, we have:

1830 MARLBORO DISTRICT, S.C. (SEVERAL FAMILY MEN FROM DUNCAN DOUGLASS):

	← MALES →				← FEMALES →
	45	10-15	15-20	20-30	15-20	20-30
ALEX. S. M'DANIEL	2	1	1	1	1	1

If this is Alexander S. and Elizabeth they have in addition to their first two sons ^{b1821} John and ^{b1830} Alexander J, two young men and an extra young girl. These later 3 could be sisters and brothers of Alexander S. and Elizabeth or other relations.

Family story has them in Robeson Co, NC with their 3rd son, Samuel D., born in 1832 (see below). Shortly after his birth, it is said that the family left for Mississippi. Thanks to the incredible work of Archie Pickens, we know where Alexander S. lived in Simpson county. Reference B is map plot of M'nair and Alexander S. McDonald property acquisitions from 1818 through 1855. The M'nairs, starting with Reuben (a brother of Alexander M'nair ???) came first in 1818 to Simpson Co followed by John M'nair in 1824 (another brother ??). Alexander M'nair and Alexander S. McDonald both acquired property in 1836. Note how close together these properties are. John E. M'nair gets property next to Alexander M'nair in 1853 by which time Alexander S. McDonald seems to have moved to Livingston Co (actually, probably in the late 1840's).

From the data in Reference B, one suspects that Alexander S and family moved with (?) his in-laws from NC. to Mississippi. The 1840
Simpson Co, Miss Census data seems to bear this out as follows:

	MALES				FEMALES
	5-10	10-15	20-30	30-40	45	20-30	30-40
A. M'Daniel	3	1	1	1	2	1	1	27.

Again, note the M'Daniel vs M'Daniel. (No wonder we had so much trouble in this case for in Covington Co, Miss. they, Neil & William were listed as M'Daniel finding the family all these years. The family next door to Alexander S is John M'Nair (vs M'Nair), while 3 "doors" away is Alexander M'Nair.

Comparing children's ages with those in the 1850 census to follow, we should have:

Alexander J ¹⁸³⁰, Samuel D ¹⁸³², Neil 1835 → 3 5-10 age group.
John 1829 → 1 10-15 age group.

The man ~~and~~ woman 20-30, again we assume right h sister and Elizabeth is OK.

now the 1850 census for Covington Co, Miss^a, Reference 14, is the real clincher! Just to be sure it is readable, I have transcribed the data on to an extract sheet, Reference 15.

William McDonald, next door is Hugh and Niel McDonald and two doors away is A. S. McDonald (vs McDonald). From this census we get all the ⁷⁰⁶Alexander S. McDonald children we know of. Further, John (1829) and Alexander ⁽¹⁸³⁰⁾5 (my great grandfather) were born in SC, Samuel D (1832 in NC, Niel ⁽¹⁸³⁵⁾, Mary Ann ⁽¹⁸³⁴⁾, Belinda ⁽¹⁸⁴¹⁾ and Effy ⁽¹⁸⁴⁵⁾ in Mississippi.

Without a doubt, this is the single most important census data on the McDonald line. It clears up a lot of mysteries and inconsistencies with the family line. Samuel D was born in 1832. Alexander T is the 2nd son. There are no twins. All 7 children are accounted for (but who was the other 0-5 year old girl in 1840?). There could have been some who died but all we really know are accounted for. Each will be discussed briefly, below.

The proximity of Alexander S. to his "brothers", William Hugh and Niel gives credence to the relationships. Unfortunately, nothing can be proven. His death in 1856 further complicates the problem. At the same time, the court records of the settlement of his estate in 1856-1859 are most important to establish conclusively the family relationships. Archie has kindly provided these records, all listed.

It appears from the records that Alexander S. owned more debt he had at the time of his death and it was necessary to sell off property to pay debts. Sam D. got one parcel at auction in Simpson Co.

The 1860 Census record is a very bad film but Reference 16 is my best attempt to date to read same. I believe I have found close together
S.B. McDonald, Elizabeth McDonald with several of her children (discussed below), as well as S.D. McDonald and Alexander Hamilton Hall and his first wife - later on in this census was William McDonald noted earlier.

To avoid confusion to the date issue, the data on Elizabeth and her children shows some discrepancies with the 1850 census:

1860
Elizabeth 52 → 1808 vs 1807
Neil 22 → 1838 vs 1835
MA 21 (male) → 1839 } of Mary Ann 1839
M 18 → 1842 }
E 16 → 1844 vs 1845 Effie

Who is MA (male)? ^{Who is Belinda??} This is very hard film to read. Maybe a new 1860 film will help to clear this up some day. In now, I'll go with the 1850 data.

Finally on census data on Elizabeth, we have that of 1870

in Simpson Co is as follows (and in Reference —)

1870

10	20	20	McDonald, Elizabeth	27	Whitingham	h.w.	500	South Carolina begin in see some discrepancies -

Emeline b 1842 is it 1845?
Belinda b 1844
Alice Effie?, Belinda is dead.

Known, the banier next door, is Alexander J. McDonald, my ^{family with} only cousin date on my great grandfather's all 6 of his children. I'll discuss further this later.

According to Idelle, Alexander S and Elizabeth McDonald are buried in the Old McNair Cemetery in Simpson County. The tomb stone are missing. Her date, consistent with the Court records, says Alexander S.
died March 21, 1856. We do not have a date for Elizabeth McDonald decease. Clearly it is after 1870 and before 1891 of the Mississippi history.

Children of Alexander S McDonald and Elizabeth McNair:

We have varying amounts of information on the children of the subjects of this one interesting one provided by Ruth was a note in ^{in Covington Co, Miss,} paper. ^{the Zion Seminary School, formed in 1847} and operating to 1855 which contains many families names, Judge John E.

McNair was a trustee. Among its students were McDonald named ^{John} Alexander, Neelle, S.D., and C as well as girls named Mary, ^{Mary Ann?} M.A., Belinda, Apple, Martha, and Effie. Thus we see that all of Alexander S' children could be accounted for plus several other McDonalds we don't recognize.
Some seem too old to have attended as late as 1847 but we can't provide any other clues on that point at this time. Any additional data on the school would be appreciated.

Now I will briefly discuss each of the children in order:

- John A. McDonald - Per the 1830 census John was born in 1829 in South Carolina. He is the oldest child of Alexander S. of the family moved to Mississippi in \approx 1833 he would have been \approx 4 years old at the time. Little data exists on him. It is said by Idelle that his middle name ^{He possibly attended Zion Sunday School.} was Sparks but we have it as A.^A from his father's estate records, for which he served as administrator along with his mother Elizabeth. Idelle has him marrying Anna Cole and fathering a daughter. ^{while working on} He was killed in a fall ^{new} from the roof of the ^{new} Courthouse in Williamsburg, Miss. He had served in the Confederate Army.
- Alexander J. McDonald - Per the 1830 census he was born in 1830 in South Carolina. Then he is the second son of Alexander S. and is my great grandfather. ^{a more detailed report will be forthcoming on him.} He was 13 years old at the time the family moved to Mississippi. He possibly attended Zion Sunday School in Carleton Co.

He married Mary Ann Byrum, daughter of Drury and Judith ^{He is later in the Court records to settle his father's estate.} Jones and later Clarke Co, Miss, in about 1858.^A In the Court claim on his father's property in August 1855 he signed separately from the rest of the family.

We have no data on any military service some future better copy. In 1870 census for Simpson Co, Miss, he lives next door to his mother and several brothers and sisters:

11	1919	McDonald A J	37	m	W	Hennrich	1868	Sac South Carolina

all 6th ^{of his children} children are listed, including my grandfather, Alexander (Drury Alexander W. Small). Persons ~~data~~ ^{data} on the family is summarized below:

We were told that Alexander J. McDonald died of an axe wound ^{and with his children} injured while dropping from a tree. We find his wife a widow living with her parents in Clarke Co, Mississippi in the 1880 census. Thus Alexander died between 1870 and 1880.
Mary Ann Bigham McDonald died about 1922.

Sam D. McDonald - Per the 1850 census, he was born in 1832 in North Carolina. Thus he is the 3rd son of Alexander S. He was said to have been about 9 months old at the time his family moved to Mississippi. He probably attended the Zion Sunday School in Coziga Co.

There is a great deal of information on Sam D, some of which is provided by his obituary in 1915. Some of this information is incorrect.
He was born in 1832, not 1822 (his parents married in 1827), thus he was 83, not 93, at his death. He was the 3rd son, not the first son of Alexander S. and his older brothers came to Mississippi and had families also as did his younger brothers and sisters. His grandfather Alex McNamee was born in Scotland but came to US as a child of 3 and could not have been married to Effie Little at the time (I think Effie was born in South Carolina per 1850 census for Simpson Co). So I don't know where the pots, pans and cross cent saw came from that were mentioned.

He did marry Louisa Smithworth in ~1858 but he was ^{not} nearly her same age (maybe 8 years older - according to census data (see below))

He apparently did serve in the Confederate Army.

He acquired part of his father's property at auction in 1857.

According to his obituary, Sam D died 24 May 1915 and is buried in the McDonald Cemetery in Collins, Mississippi.

- Nele McDonald - Nele was born in 1835 in Mississippi according to the 1880 Census. He was the 4th son of Alexander S. McDonald. We have the following data on him: He appears to have attended the Zion Seminary; he is listed in the court case to settle his father's estate; He is listed as living with his mother in the 1860 and 1870 census records. He apparently never married. We do not know when he died.

[Archie - we need a sheet on him. I'll make up one -]

37.
• Mary Ann McDonald - according to the 1850 Census, ^{in Crigier Co.,} Mary Ann was ~~probably the first daughter of Alexander S.~~ ^{she is probably listed in the Zion Seminary list.}
born in Mississippi in 1839. The 1860 Census for Crigier Co., lists Mary Ann (with her mother) as being born in 1839 also (or 1842 depending on which record one takes - file is poor). In 1870 she is not listed with Elizabeth. However, that is probably right since family story has her as the 2nd wife of Dr. Alexander Hamilton Hall, probably married about 1867. They had 5 children between 1868 and 1877 (Alexander had already had 7 beginning with Evan Hall in 1845 by his first wife Mary Evans).

- Belenia McDonald - She was born in Mississippi in 1841 according to the 1850 Census for Crigier Co. ^{she is the 2nd daughter of Alexander S.} ^{probably} attended Zion Seminary. She is listed as a minor in the court records to settle her father's estate. She is not listed with her mother in the 1860 Census. She is listed with Elizabeth in 1870.

In the Crigier Marriage Records for Simpson County, we find Belinda's marriage to William Dumas 15 April 1873. Idelle's original records had her as his wife but it now appears she was his second. There is some confusion, but I think they had 5 children, birth dates unknown.

she is the 3rd daughter age 7^{1/2} and last died of ^{blinder} S.
the 1850 Covington Co, Miss Census? She attended the Zion Sunday.

She is listed as a minor child in the court records to settle her father's estate. In the 1860 census for Covington, she is listed with Elizabeth.

Effie married Dr Alexander Hamilton Hall's oldest son, Evans Hall in about 1866. They had 13 children beginning with Mary in about 1867 and ending with Teneater in 1887. In between were - Robert S. Hall (b 1876) whose sons Fred and Stanton were childhood playmates of my father in Hattiesburg, Miss; and Edna Hall (b 1883) who married Dr Robert Simpson → Sid Simpson parents.

^{Edna} Sid Simpson recall stories his mother told of ^{her grandmother Elizabeth} the family. Elizabeth was ^{blind} and his mother learned to read by reading the Bible to her grandmother.
Effie is the one whose clothes caught on fire before the fire place, she and died as a result. Her tombstone shows 15 Dec 1898. She is buried in the old Hardy Street Cemetery in Hattiesburg, Miss.
(arch, shall I write this last page?)

Conclusion

With this not so brief account I have told the tale of the McDonalds from Angus through his fifth son Alexander S. Details of Alexander S' son now Alexander J, the latter's 6th child (Drury) Alexander and on to my father Charles Alexander McDonald will be the subject of additional reports.

How did this all begin — ? Although we started our family tree in the 1960's, the real factual beginning was the summer of 1981.
My wife traced my father's sister Jane McDonald Donald in Shedd La. . After an interval of 40 years since we had met, it was a pleasant visit of several days during which we informed Jane and her son Blakey of our trip to Memphis via Hattiesburg. They suggested contacting Judge Stanton Hall — We did and had an interesting several hours during which he tried to contact Ruth Messinger and Idelle Pickering and others for us to visit. He was successful ^{only} with Sid Simpson. We arranged to meet later that day in Collins. Sid took us to visit Ruth (who again tried to locate Idelle — you see were on a trip at the time).

We three cousins sat around in Ruth's living room telling family stories which each already knew. We didn't know how 40

we were related. Now we know - all are descended from Alexander S. McDonald and Elizabeth McNamee. I am the great great grandson via their 2nd son Alexander J. Ruth is the great great grandson via their 3rd son Samuel D. Sid is the great grandson via the last child, Effie Little. Thus Ruth and I are 3rd cousins.
Ruth and I are 2nd cousins once removed to Sid as we are also to Judge Stanton Hall.

To get back to Archie Pickering we really need to establish the connection to Angus. Assuming Alexander S. is Angus 5th son while William was the 4th, then Ruth and I are 3rd cousins once removed to Archie, while Sid is his 3rd cousin.

4 years, a lot of work and a lot of credit to Idelle and Archie Pickering - Ruth and I contributed a little - we now know a lot!

Keep up the good work Archie - we all owe you and Idelle a huge debt of gratitude!

- 1 I HAVE USED IDELE'S LIST TO PLACE "KNOWN" CHILDREN, WITH ALEX S. AT 1805 AS A HINT FROM HIS WEDDING IN 1827 -
- 2 DON'T TAKE THE 1800 LISTINGS SERIOUSLY, SIMILARLY THE 1820 ARE BOTH HARD 7
 - 3 WE NEED MORE GIRLS! ONE OR MORE IN THE 1800-1810, ALSO ONE OR MORE IN THE 1810-1820 PERIOD. CATHERINE AND SARAH ANN BOTH MISS A BIT.
 - 4 PRETTY STRONG EVIDENCE FOR A BOY IN THE 1804-1810 PERIOD. BET IT'S ALEXANDER ALTHOUGH HE HAD MARRIED IN 1827 SO WOULDN'T SHOW UP IN 1830 UNLESS HE LIVED WITH ANGUS PRIOR TO GOING TO MISS - NO, THEN HIS WIFE WOULD TURN UP AS A FEMALE WHO WAS 20-30 (BORN IN 1808, \therefore 22)
 - 5 VERY STRONG CORRELATION FOR A BOY AROUND 1817.
 - 6 SAM MAY HAVE JUST BEEN CAUGHT IN 1840, BUT WHY NOT IN 1830?
 - 7 WHY DON'T CATHERINE AND SARAH ANN SHOW UP PROPERLY IN 1840, AND AT THAT MATTER, CATHERINE IN 1830?

IDELE'S LIST SHOWS SEVERAL OTHER CHILDREN, NAMELY JANIE, PLUS 2 BOYS PLUS AN UNKNOWN. THAT GIVES US AT LEAST 4 MORE CHILDREN!
MY GUESS IS FOR ONE TO THREE GIRLS IN THE 1800-1810 PERIOD, ALEX S. (1804-
A BOY ^{AS WELL AS ONE OR 2 GIRLS} ABOUT 1817, A GIRL ABOUT 1822 AND SAM ~ 1827 (FROM CENSUS DATA), FOLLOWED BY CATHERINE (1828) AND SARAH ANN (1836). - DO YOU SUPPOSE
CATHERINE COULD BE THE FEMALE IN THE 1830 & 1840 CENSUS WHO WAS BORN 1820
INSTEAD OF 1828 ??? - ALSO, MAYBE SARAH ANN WAS BORN IN 1830-18
INSTEAD OF 1836 AS IDELE HAD IT - IT IS CLOSE - JUST WHERE DID
SHE GET THE DATA ON ANGUS'S CHILDREN ANYWAY ?? SHE MUST HAVE DIED EARLY - BESIDES, THAT WOMAN (CATHERINE BUCHANAN McDONALD), BY OUR COUNT COULD HAVE HAD 12 CHILDREN OVER A 36 YEAR TIME SPAN, INCLUDING SOME POSSIBLE BIG GARS - IF SHE WAS BORN IN 1776 AS I'M GUESSING, SHE COULD HAVE DIED A FEW DAYS AFTER SARAH ANN'S BIRTH (IF YOU INSIST) ON 9/10/1836 -
I'M GUESSING, AS I SAID EARLIER, THAT CATHERINE BUCHANAN DIED 9/25/18
SHE WOULD HAVE BEEN 60 -! NO WOMAN WITH THE LARGEST A FAMILY COULD HAVE LIVED
TO 90! IT CHECKS RATHER WELL WITH THE CENSUS DATA - SHE WAS SOME BY 11
PROBABLY WORN OUT!

MARY DOUGLASS (dau. of Duncan Douglass) b. 18 Mar 1818 Marlboro Co., S.C.; d. 23 Feb 1854 Richmond Co., N.C., bur. Douglass Cem. near Laurinburg, N.C.; m. John McDonald, b. 1801, Richmond Co., N.C.; d. 31 Dec 1864 Richmond Co., N.C.

Mary Douglass McDonald is buried in an abandoned cemetery near Laurinburg, N.C., where two Douglasses are buried who are members of the family of Daniel Douglass of Richmond Co., N.C. Other McDonalds buried there are Angus and Catherine (Buchanan) McDonald (John's parents) and their son Alex and dau. Sarah Ann Leach.

Mary died young, aged 35. When her brother, John Douglass, died 10 years later on 7 May 1864, he devised to Mary's children 1/3 of his estate. The War of Secession ended before his estate was settled; his slaves were freed, and his property destroyed. About the only thing left for the McDonald children was a share in 272 acres. See John Douglass will and court proceedings attached.

Children of Mary Douglass and John McDonald:

- i. Catharine Buchanan McDonald
- ii. Angus H. McDonald, b. 1847
- iii. Duncan Douglass McDonald, b. 1849

A descendant of Mary and John McDonald, Mrs. Estalena McDonald Goodye of Mullins, S.C., had this to say in a letter written in 1963: "Mary and John McDonald lived near present day Laurinburg, Scotland Co., N. John McDonald was the son of Angus McDonald, b. 1769 on the Isle of Skye, Scotland, who came to this country as a boy. Angus McDonald married Catharine Buchanan (dau. of William Buchanan), who was 27 years his junior. The other children of Angus and Catharine McDonald were Neil, Hugh, William, Samuel, Alexander, and Sarah Ann who m. Angus Leach; poss. others. One son moved to Arkansas, one to Texas, and one to Miss."

JOHN DOUGLASS II (son of Duncan Douglass) b. 22 May 1820 Marlboro Co. S.C.; d. 6 May 1864, aged 44, Marlboro Co., S.C., unmarried.

John lived in his parent's home along with his brothers and sisters. In his will he bequeathed his estate to his sisters Catherine and Elizabeth, and the children of his deceased sister, Mary McDonald, wife of John McDonald; also he named John McDonald executor of his estate. The appraised value of his estate at the time of his death in May 1864 was $20,000 which included 22 slaves valued at $15,650, a saw mill, and 272 acres of uncleared land (part of his grandfather John's land). His sister Catherine died a few days after his death--her share reverting to the McDonald children. His sister, Elizabeth, married Dr. A. W. Hamer on 28 Sept., and John McDonald died 31 December not having settled the estate. Whereupon Dr. Hamer was appointed administrator, the War ended, the economy collapsed, and after several years of litigation, the estate was bankrupt. The 272 acres were sold by the Sheriff for delinquent taxes. Dr. Hamer and Mary's son, Angus H. McDonald, bought it for $50.

McNair/McMurrin

MEMOIRS OF MISSISSIPPI. REFERENCE 10 1231

capacity for ten years. In 1870 he was appointed chancellor of the second district by Governor Alcorn and held that position by reappointment for six years. In 1885 he was elected justice of the peace and still holds that office. He was supervisor of the census of the fourth district of Mississippi in 1890 under the appointment of President Harrison. In 1895 Judge McMillan married Miss Annette Darden, a native of Jefferson county, Miss., the second daughter and third child of Buckner and Sarah (Torrey) Darden. Mr. and Mrs. McMillan have had five children: Lillian R. (who died at the age of five years), Stewart (born in 1899 and died in 1871), Archibald M. (born in 1872), Viola (born in 1875) and Beatrice (born in 1877), the three last mentioned all being members of their father's household. Previous to the war Judge McMillan was a democrat. He took no active part in the Confederate cause except in the clothing of the soldiers who had enlisted in his immediate vicinity. Since the war he has been a republican. His first presidential vote was cast for Lewis Cass. He is a master Mason and a member of the Knights of Honor, and a member of the Presbyterian church. He is a generous supporter of the causes of religion and education, and has always labored and given of his means to elevate the people to a higher and better condition and to assist in the dissemination of education and general enlightenment.

John T. McMurrin (deceased) made a name for himself in the legal circles of the state of Mississippi, but was especially well known throughout Adams and adjoining counties. He achieved a reputation for legal ability and acumen which might well be envied by any man and fully gained the confidence of the people. He was born in Pennsylvania in 1801, but in the city of Chillicothe, Ohio, he was educated by an uncle, who gave him good advantages, and, unlike the majority of boys, he improved his opportunities to the utmost. In the year 1820 he graduated in law, and the following year came to Natchez and entered the office of Griffith & Quitman, remaining with them three years. In 1827, at the death of Mr. Griffith, Mr. McMurrin formed a partnership with Mr. Quitman, the firm being Quitman & McMurrin, but at the opening of the Texan war Mr. Quitman entered the service, and the business was carried on alone by Mr. McMurrin, until the former's return. They dissolved partnership in 1846, after which Mr. McMurrin practiced his profession alone until 1861. In 1860, while a passenger on the steamer Fashion, it was burned and he was so severely injured that he was taken to a hospital at New Orleans and there died of his injuries on the 11th of December, 1866. He had been married on the 6th of January, 1831, to Miss Mary Louisa Turner, a daughter of Judge Turner (see sketch), her birth occurring on the 7th of January, 1814. She still survives him, and although seventy-seven years of age, shows but little the ravages of time, either mentally or physically. She bore her husband three children: Mary Louisa, born October 10, 1831, and died July 31, 1833; John Thompson, who is born October 1, 1833, and is now residing in New York, and Mary Louisa, born December 28, 18—, married Famar B. Connor, but died on the 31st of March, 1864, leaving three children, only one of whom is now living. The family are members of the Episcopal church, and have, during their long residence in this county, been highly respected and exceptionally prominent people. Mr. McMurrin was a prominent lawyer in his day, was thoroughly conversant with the common law, and impressed all with whom he came in contact as a man of strength, depth and grasp of mind. His words and writings inspired respect, and for forty years he was a leading character of Natchez. He was the soul of honor in his office and in fact in every walk in life, and at the time of his death he left an unblemished reputation and an honored name as a heritage to his children.

Angus K. McNair, M. D., has been a resident of Mississippi since early manhood and during this time he has enjoyed the reputation of being an honest, upright man, and a solid, substantial and thoroughly reliable citizen. The history of his life has not been unlike that of other professional men, and yet there has been that individuality about him that shows him to be a man of superior intelligence. His energy and ability have not been without the substantial rewards of success, as will be seen from a glance at his present possessions, and as a citizen he is thoroughly public spirited and law abiding. He was born in Richmond county, of the Old North state, July 28, 1838, his father, Japeth McNair, being a native of the same state and county as himself, his birth occurring in 1799. The latter was married in his native state to Miss Mary Kelly, and in 1839 they moved to Coosa county, Ala., where Mr. McNair became an extensive planter and the owner of numerous slaves. He made his home in Coosa county until his death in 1872, his wife having preceded him to the grave four years. Of their family, six sons and three daughters grew to mature years. Two of the sons entered the army, fighting for the Confederate cause, and died while in the service. Another son, Dr. William McNair, was a prominent physician, and died in Arkansas; and two more sons are successful farmers of Alabama. Dr. A. K. McNair attained to man's estate in Alabama, and received a fair common-school education, but is, however, mostly self-educated. He began the study of medicine when a young man of twenty, his preceptor being his cousin, Dr. N. H. Baker, a well-known and successful physician of Coosa county. In the winter of 1859-60 Dr. McNair took his first course of lectures, and the following winter was a student in the medical department of the New Orleans university, graduating in the spring of 1861. Upon finishing his studies in that institution he came to Fayette-Miss., for the purpose of entering upon the practice of his profession, but being an enthusiastic Southerner, he gave this up to enlist as a private in the Confederate army, becoming a member of the First Mississippi light artillery. He was soon promoted to assistant surgeon, with the rank of captain, and served in that capacity until the close of the war, participating in all the engagements of his battery. He received a gunshot wound in the hip at the battle of Baker's creek, and in the siege of Vicksburg he was taken prisoner. He was paroled, and after his exchange returned to active service at the front, but at the time of the final surrender was in Hinds county, Miss., where he was paroled. Shortly after this he returned to Jefferson county, and for a number of years was engaged in practicing medicine about six miles east of Fayette. Since 1879 he has been a resident of the town, and has acquired a large and profitable practice. In his journeys to alleviate the sufferings of the sick, the sunshine of his disposition as well as his medical skill is brought to bear upon his patients, and the result is very satisfactory. He is a member of the State Medical association, and was appointed one of the health officers of Jefferson county. Dr. McNair was married here in March, 1873, to Miss Frances Marion Warren, a daughter of J. J. Warren. Mrs. McNair is a native of the county, and was reared and educated in the Fayette Female college, of which institution she is a graduate. She has borne the Doctor five children: Mary, a young lady now attending college at Columbus, Miss.; William, Angus K., Jr.; Warren and Annie, the latter being ten years of age. The family are prominent members of the Presbyterian church, and the Doctor is a Royal Arch Mason, a member of the K. of H. and also of the I. O. O. F.

sheriff. He took a very prominent part in the political affairs; his business operations being so successful that he acquired a considerable property. He died very suddenly in this county, aged sixty-eight years. He was twice married, and by his first marriage he had six children, of whom the mother of the subject of this sketch was the second in order of birth. She accompanied her parents from Holmes county to Covington county, where she was married. Thomas Watts, the eldest child, died in Covington county, leaving a wife and two children, who reside at Williamsburg. Adeline Watts became the wife of J. E. McNair. William Watts died during the war, leaving a wife and one child. George Watts, who never married, died in Texas. Dr. V. B. Watts is a resident of Brookhaven. Jane Watts married Mr. Davis, who was killed in the battle of Harrisburg, Miss., and by whom she had one child. She married, for the second time, D. O. Summers, and lived in Marion county, Miss. The father, Reuben Watts, was afterward married to Mrs. Nancy Parish, his first wife having died about 1855, having been for many years a member of the Presbyterian church. The father of our subject's father, Alexander McNair, was a native of Scotland, and came with his parents to North Carolina when he was three years old. The family located in that state, where Alexander was reared, and followed planting until his removal to Mississippi. He settled in Simpson county, where he died at the age of eighty-four years. He was a man of considerable prominence and took some part in politics. His wife was Miss Effie Little. She died in Simpson county, considerably advanced in life, some years after her husband. To them were born eleven children, seven of whom married and had families, and two of whom are yet living. The latter are Mrs. Jane Graves and Mrs. Isabelle Stubbs, the first mentioned of whom lived in San Antonio, Tex., and the latter in Louisiana. Those deceased are as follows: Mrs. Katy Leonard, who died in Covington county, Miss.; Rodrick, who married in Mississippi and removed to Texas, and there died, leaving a large family; Cornelius died in South Carolina, unmarried; Diana, who died unmarried, in Covington county, Miss.; Rachel, who died in Covington county; Mary, who died unmarried in Simpson county, Miss.; Mrs. Betsey McDonald died in Covington county, leaving a large family; and Mrs. Belinda Fullenweider, who died in Texas, also leaving a large family. John E. McNair came to Mississippi when a young man. After his arrival he taught school for a time, studying law during his leisure hours, and in due time was admitted to the bar. He was several times elected to the office of district attorney of his county, and afterward was elected circuit judge, a position which he filled with much credit until about the close of the war. He came to Brookhaven, Miss., in 1870, and for some years taught the Peabody school. He was elected mayor and held that office until his death, which occurred in January, 1874, he being in his sixty-sixth year. He led a very active life and was quite successful as an attorney, and was regarded as one of the most able judges in the state. In his earlier life he was the founder of the Monticello academy, of Monticello, Miss. As a politician he took a very active part and was always so outspoken in his political convictions, that he was widely known as a staunch democrat of the old ante-bellum days. He was a member of the Presbyterian church, and was for many years an elder and took an active and helpful interest in everything pertaining to its welfare, being a leader in all church and Sunday-school affairs. To John and Adeline (Watts) McNair were born eight children who are yet living, another son, John E., having died at the age of four years. Of the others, Alexander C. is an attorney living at Brookhaven, and is chairman of the democratic executive committee of Sinclair county; Rachel is the wife of Walter McGee and a resident of Covington county, Miss.; Thomas McNair is a dentist of Brookhaven; Stephen D. is a telegraph operator and express agent at Harrison, lately elected chancery clerk of Jefferson county, Miss.; Charles is deputy circuit clerk of Lincoln county, Miss., and received the nomination for circuit clerk of said county at recent election; Willie G. is a train dispatcher in the employ of the Natchez, Jackson & Columbus railroad company of Natchez; Mattie, the wife of Dr. C. B. Dunning, lives at Crysta Springs, Miss. Our subject was born in Simpson county, Miss., but was reared in Covington county, where he was educated in what is now Centenary college and other schools. At the age of twenty he married and settled in Covington county on a farm. In December 1870, he came to Lincoln county and settled near Brookhaven, where he has since resided engaged in farming. He was elected assessor of Lincoln county in 1879, for two years. He was also elected a member of the board of supervisors for two years. In the fall of 1882 he was elected sheriff, and holds that office until the present time, being reelected a every consecutive election. Politically he is a democrat and he takes a great interest in all public affairs. He keeps himself exceptionally well posted on all current topics, and is one of the most intelligent, best informed and most companionable men in the county. He married Miss Emma Pearce, a native of Greene county, Miss., and daughter of Levi and Katy (Fairly) Pearce. When quite young Mrs. McNair came with her parents to Covington county, Miss., and here she was reared and educated. To Mr. and Mrs. McNair have been born five children, Addie, Katy, Bertram, Mary and Ruby, who died at the age of six years. The family are members of the Presbyterian church, in which Mr. McNair is an elder. He is also a member of the Knights of Honor.

Stephen D. McNair is accounted among the energetic and enterprising men of Harrison and although only in his thirty-third year he has business qualifications of a high order, and has become widely and favorably known for prudent foresight, sound judgment and an active and intelligent mind. He was born in Simpson county of this state September 22, 1855, but his father, Judge John E. McNair, was born in Robinson county of the Palmetto state, and when a young man, or about the year 1820, he came to Mississippi and took up his abode in Lawrence county, where he soon became widely known, for he was a man of superior education. After devoting his attention to teaching for some time he began reading law with the intention of preparing himself for an active business life, and was soon admitted to the bar. After practicing a short time in the midst of able and experienced competition his ability as an attorney began to manifest itself, and his close application and attention to his profession was rewarded by his election to the position of district attorney, in which capacity he served one or more terms. He was next elected to the office of circuit judge of this district, and while discharging the duties of this position he distinguished himself as a man of sound judgment, broad intelligence and liberal, progressive ideas. In the year 1877 he removed to Brookhaven, where he lived retired from the active duties of his life until his death in 1874. He was a very able and talented lawyer, and filled every position with honor and trust with credit to himself and honor to his profession. He was married to Miss Adaline Watts, a daughter of Reuben Watts, Mrs. McNair was born and reared in Covington county, Miss., and in 1870, at the early age of thirty-eight years, was called from life, her death being deeply lamented by a large circle of friends, as well as by her immediate family. Besides Mr. McNair she left a family of three sons and two daughters that grew to mature years, all of whom are living at the present time and are the heads of families, with the exception of the youngest son. She was a mother and wife, was a kind, sincere and obliging friend, and her piety and true Christianity were undoubted. Until eighteen years of age Stephen D. McNair made his home in the family of Brookhaven, receiving the advantages of the common schools. In his youth he learned telegraphy and was given a position as night operator at Osyka, but only remained
